WOMAN BURNED BY OIL EXPLOSION

DOOPER TAKES NECKLACE OF
WOMAN HEREGold Piece Stolen by Bandit in Night Attack

BANDIT MAY BE DRUG ADDICT

Descriptions in Hands of Police
Lead to Latter Belief

Lima's "sheik bandit" Thursday night waylaid Mrs. Kate Miller, 837

E. North-st., in front of her home.

Dore a necklace from her neck and escaped north before the woman's screams aroused the neighborhood.

A $5 gold piece was suspended on the gold necklace, police were told.

Dressed in the height of fashion with a light spring suit and a top coat to match, the dapper highwayman, stepped from the shadows as the woman was about to enter her home at 10 p. m. Thursday. Without a word he grabbed her with one hand and with the other he jerked

the necklace loose and then vanished

in the darkness.

Description given police by Mrs.

Miller coincides with the description of the "dope" fiend wanted by police in the theft of a medicine case

from Dr. I. D. Baxter, 516 N. Jameson-av.

MAY BE SAME

Both are described as being about 20 years of age and weighing about 160 pounds. Clothes worn by both leads to belief that the "dope"

may be pulling highway robberies to get money to buy dope or else

under influence of the drug when he starts his night banditry.

Attack on Mrs. Miller is the second within one week. Miss Jeanette Benjamin while enroute to her home at 208 W. McKibben-st. was grabbed by a prowler as she was about to enter the house on Tuesday night, April 15.

Her screams aroused the neighborhood and frightened away the assailant who was described as being about 25 years of age and weighing about 140 pounds. Police were inclined at first to believe that the assailants of Miss Benjamin and

Mrs. Miller are the same person but detailed description shows decided differences and leads to the theory that the "dope" may be the new sheik highwayman.

700 KITE FLIERS

IN CONTEST

Kiddies Ready for Saturday's

Doings at City Park

Unusual interest is being evidenced by Lima's older people and by hundreds of Allen-co. young kite fliers in the Kiwanis Klub Kite contest, which, barring a radical change in weather, conditions, will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Fawcett park.

With nearly 700 kiddies expected with as many kites, everything is all set for what is probably the biggest contest for Lima and Allen-co. youngsters ever held in this city.

Steve Bahiet, 14-year-old kite wizard, who carried off the big prizes

last year, is entered in nearly every contest. He is too modest to make any assertion that he's going to win

again this year. "I'm going to do my best," he says.

Among the prizes in cash and merchandise valued at $200 is a grand prize of $20 in gold for the best all-round kite, and a silver loving cup for the school having the most successful winners. Four additional prizes also will be given in each of eight classes.

Three competent judges have been chosen by the committee in charge, headed by E. A. Heitbrink. They are City Manager A. C. Bingham,

Judge Neil R. Poling and Thomas P.

Pearman, secretary of the Y. M. C.

Baker is boosted for

PRESIDENT BY REPUBLICAN

CLEVELAND — Another "New-

D. Baker for president club" is making here. The latest to announce he is forming such a club is Francis V. Brady, local Republican attorney.

"Although a Republican, I expect to go to the Democratic national convention in New York to boost him,"

Brady said.

MURDER CHARGED

COLUMBUS — Charles Thomas,

colored, is in a hospital here today,

under indictment for first degree murder in connection with the killing of patrolman Troy C. Stewart in a gun battle here this week.

Thomas is recovering from bullet

Other Bag Reported Traveling
Northwest Over Iowa

ST. ANSGAR, Iowa — (Associated Press) — Army balloon S-14 piloted by Major Norman W. Peek, with Lieutenant W. A. Gray, aide, in the national race from San Antonio, landed seven miles south of here, near the Minnesota line at 2 a. m. today in a storm, in the absence of which the major believes he could have broken the world's record.

DEBUQUE, Iowa — (Associated Press) — Balloon number seven in the national balloon race, in command of Lieutenant Herbert Von at 4 o'clock. Trapped in three electrical storms the balloon was forced to land after traveling about 1,000 miles. The balloon was not damaged.

DES MOINES, Iowa — (Associated Press) — Radio reports received here from Station WOC at Davenport, Iowa, says that the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company balloon, an entrant in the international race, passed over Volga City, Iowa, near Davenport about 11 o'clock this morning. The balloon was reported traveling northwest.

KANSAS CITY — (Associated Press) — Four of the seven balloons which left Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas, Wednesday in the national elimination balloon race were last sighted over northeast Missouri last night, bearing steadily on a northeasterly course that was expected to carry them to the Great Lakes region by dawn today, provided the pilots were successful in riding out rain storms in their path.

Army balloon number two, piloted by Captain E. W. Hill, landed at Moine, Kansas, late yesterday, having been forced down by an electrical storm. Two other bags, the army entry number three, piloted by Lieutenant Ashley McKinley, and the San Antonio, piloted by B. H. Fournier, were wrecked when they were forced down in Oklahoma. The army number three struck a tree near Wapanucka when the pilot descended from a heavy cloud to obtain his bearings. Fournier reported he was caught in a whirlwind and was forced to the ground precipitately near Kaw City.

Those still in the race, according to last reports, are: Captain H. E. Honeywell, piloting the Kansas City Cooperative Club entry "Honeywell," Herbert Von Thaden, piloting "Detroit," entry of the Detroit Aviation Society, and Ward T. Van Orman, piloting "Goodyear III."

Major Norman W. Peek, piloting U. S. Army balloon number one.

Notwithstanding the testimony of Mrs. Fannie Foster and had lived with her for 34 years, the promoter's accusers asserted he had five children by another wife, since deceased.

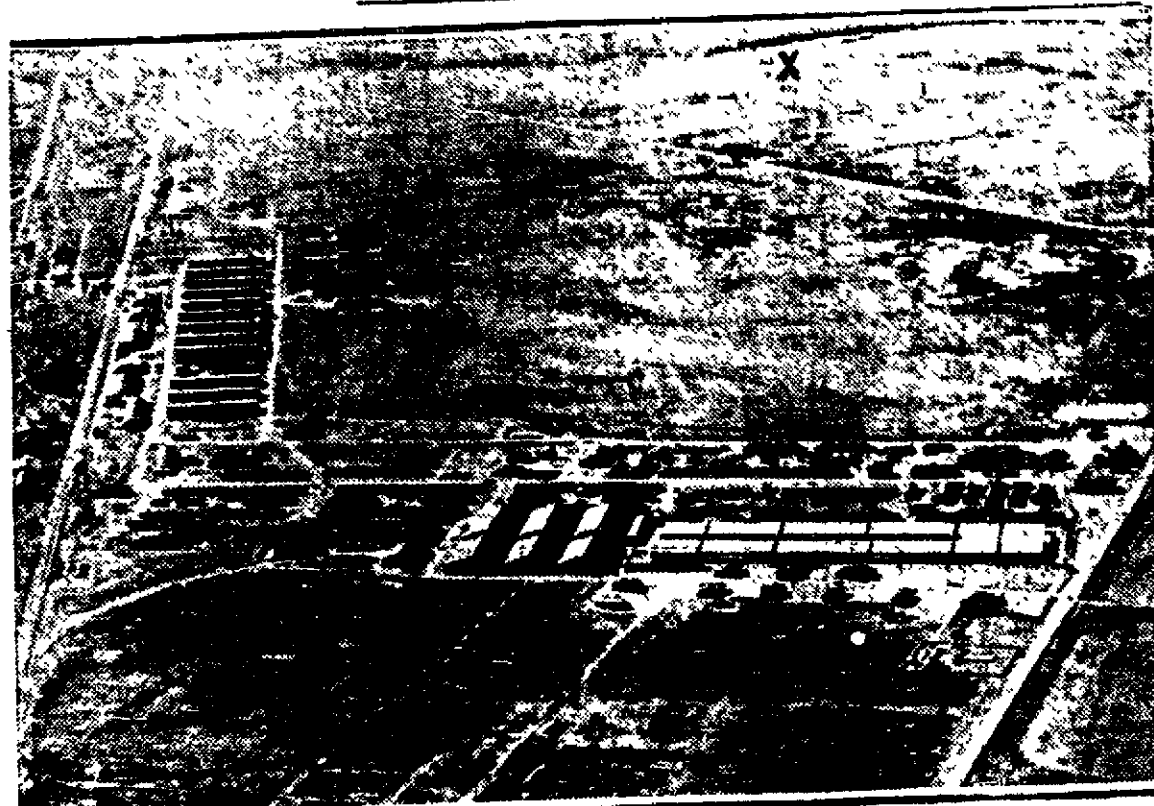

Foster said he never had another wife. He also denied testimony that he was William Abbott Foster, who in 1908 was arrested on complaint of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Pierpont Morgan and Andrew Carnegie that he was trying to collect $5,000,000 from them. This man, the witness said, served nine months in jail.

The case is expected to go to the jury today.

CONSUL ATTACKED

BANKER IS ROBBED
OF $63,000Cashier, With Payroll, Held up by Bandits in Illinois

GRANITE CITY, Ill. — (Associated Press) — Bandits today held up and robbed T. D. Gradinaroff, assistant cashier of the Granite City National Bank, of $63,000 in currency which he had just received at the postoffice from the St. Louis Federal Reserve bank.

Several shots were fired by Gradinaroff and the bandits, one of whom is believed to have been wounded. The robbery was staged in front of the bank, across the street from the postoffice. The money was intended for steel company payrolls.

Gradinaroff said he did not know how many bandits were in the party. They are believed to have used two motor cars in their escape.

As the robbers drove away, they were fired upon by Charles Worster, assistant postmaster, and Louis Fresen, bank cashier, as well as by Gradinaroff himself. Worster and Fresen had been standing at the bank of the postoffice and the bank to guard the men with the money as he crossed the street.

"As I got almost across the street," Gradinaroff said, "a large touring car, with curtains drawn, and he jumped back upon the running board."

Some of the spectators said the man on the running board moved as if he had been wounded and it appeared to them he was pulled in by those inside the car.

The money was sent from the Federal Reserve Bank by registered mail to meet the bi-monthly payroll of the Granite City Steel Works of the National Enameling and Stamping Company, which pays its employees tomorrow. The money was insured.

An attempt two years ago to take the same payroll was frustrated.

JOHNSON WILL END
OHIO CAMPAIGN TONIGHT

CLEVELAND — Senator Hiram Johnson brings his campaign in Ohio, where he is contesting with President Coolidge for the delegation to the Republican national convention, to a close tonight. Following an address here at noon he planned to go to Toledo for his final address in this state. His Saturday evening address here was cancelled.

A large crowd waited at Akron two hours to hear the Californian speak last night. His arrival there from Cleveland was delayed. In his Akron address Senator Johnson commented on former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty's address at Columbus Wednesday night, continued his attack on the administration and attributed Gifford Pinchot's defeat for delegate at large in Pennsylvania to "crooked policies and crooked big business."

IRELAND Faced BY
NEW CRISISBrought About by Long Dispute
Over Boundary

LONDON — (Associated Press) — The failure of the Irish boundary conference here is regarded as likely to develop a new crisis. It is generally taken for granted that the British government wishes to act in the matter by appointing a commission to delimit the boundary between northern and southern Ireland and it is believed the free state government will press this if necessary.

The question, however, arises whether since Ulster has refused to appoint a representative to the commission, that body could legally operate with only two members instead of the three provided for by the Anglo-Irish treaty.

Despatches from Dublin and Belfast report anxiety in both Irish capitals regarding the outcome. The Ulster premier, Sir James Craig, declared last October: "Not a yard of our territory will be handed over to a foreign flag and our enemies will have to tramp over my grave before they steal a yard of it."

14 ESCAPE FROM COUNTY JAILBandit Queen Suspected of Aiding in Break at Denver

DENVER, Colo. — Headed by "Slippery" Dell Hanlon, convicted highwayman of St. Paul and Denver, 14 prisoners, some armed, escaped from the county jail last night after overpowering three guards.

In a blinding snow storm the escaped prisoners scattered thru nearby streets. None with the exception of Mike Quintana, had been captured. Quintana after escaping, ran to a telephone and notified the police. Then he surrendered. Hanlon, Thomas Edwards, H. V. Herbert and Joe Russo were driven away from the jail in a big motor car which apparently had been waiting for them near the jail.

Soon after the escape, Ruth Harris, friend of Hanlon and known in police parlance as the "Bandit Queen," was held for further investigation. She denied any knowledge of the escape.

Yesterday was visiting day at the jail and officials expressed the opinion that revolvers were smuggled to the prisoners.

The "Bandit Queen" was one of the visitors.

ON DEMOCRATS

NEW YORK — (United Press) — So sure is everyone that President Coolidge will be the unanimous choice of the Republican convention, betting has ceased on Wall Street, brokers said. No Republican money is in sight except that placed on Coolidge.

CHARLES MURPHY
TAKEN BY DEATHTammany Hall Chieftain Victim of Acute Indigestion

DIES AT HIS NEW YORK HOME

Leader of Most Powerful Political Organization

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, died today. He died at 9:30 o'clock this morning at his residence at 305 E. 17th-st.

Murphy succeeded the late Richard Croker as chieftain of the country's most famous political organization. He was a native New Yorker, having been born here June 20, 1858.

Acute indigestion was the cause of death. A street car driver who became leader of the most powerful political organization in the world and as such played a prominent part in the naming of mayors and governors and nominees for the presidency, such is the life history of Charles F. Murphy.

ALTHOUGH the advantages of education because of family circumstances, he showed qualities of leadership early in life and from boyhood had been a leader of a circle of one kind or another. In all of them he was uniformly successful, a result that may be said to have been due to his loyalty to friends, his shrewdness and his secretive manner. He never discussed his plans with any except his closest lieutenants and rarely spoke for publication. Whenever he consented to be interviewed he usually covered what he had to say in a sentence or two. As a result he came generally to be known as "Silent Charlie."

Murphy's political leadership began in the eighteenth assembly district in 1892, when he became district leader after the death of Edward Hagan. He had built up a large following in the district and it was said that Hagan owed his position as leader largely to the influence and financial support with which Murphy backed him. On his deathbed Hagan named Murphy as his successor and from that time the rise of the future leader of the Democratic party in New York was rapid.

After Robert A. Van Wyck assumed office as mayor in 1898, he named Murphy commissioner of docks and ferries. The Van Wyck administration was the last under the leadership of the late Richard Croker. For several years prior to the election of Mayor Van Wyck the government of New York City had been subjected to severe criticism, finally resulting in the appointment of a committee to investigate into the affairs of the city. Sensational testimony had been anticipated from Mr. Croker but before the committee began its hearings the Tammany leader went to Ireland, purchased an estate and remained there nearly three years. Croker returned to New York and resumed his place as Tammany leader, but resigned in 1901. That move eventually provided the opportunity for Mr. Murphy to become leader.

Murphy entered upon the leadership during an opposition administration. He set about to ally the independent Democrats with the Tammany organization and recognizing the necessity of naming a conservative candidate for mayor to insure Democratic success, forcing the selection of George E. McClellan.

Murphy then turned his attention toward strengthening the Democratic party throughout the state. From 1892 when Roswell P. Flowers was elected, to 1910 there had been an unbroken string of Republican governors. In 1910, however, the Democrats succeeded in electing John A. Dix and two years later repealed their success with the election of William Sulzer, who was impeached before completing the first year of his terms. Later Alfred E. Smith was elected twice in 1918 and 1922, making four gubernatorial campaigns won by the Democrats in 20 years of Murphy's leadership of

Husband Also Hurt In Attempt to Save Wife's Life

SECOND ACCIDENT IN FAMILY

Home is Lost When Son is Struck by Automobile

Mrs. Biddle Hillery, 33, was probably fatally burned early Friday morning when a can of coal oil, which she attempted to pour into a stove, exploded, igniting her clothing.

Mrs. Hillery was starting a fire in the kitchen stove at her home, 1125 S. Main-st., about 4:30 and was alone when the accident occurred. It is thought the flames from the fire ignited fumes from the can, causing the oil to explode.

Her husband, Jerry Hillery, who was in bed, heard the explosion and rushed down the stairs to find his wife enveloped in a mass of flames. He wrapped her in bed clothing, smothering the flames. He was burned by the flames. Mrs. Hillery's entire body was severely burned. She was removed to the City hospital in Hamilton's ambulance, where her condition is reported very critical.

SECOND ACCIDENT

This is the second accident to occur in the Hillery family in the past six months. Late last fall an eight year old son was struck by an automobile in the Fidelity-st. and was unconscious for five days and nights.

This expense set Hillery back financially and when he was laid off at one of the factories, he was unable to keep up the payments on a little home he had purchased and it was taken away from him.

Unfortunately he lost everything he had put into it. Just a week ago the family moved into their present home. He obtained a position after months of idleness and the future was beginning to brighten up. But now his wife and mother of his four small children lies at the point of death in a hospital.

EARTH SINKS 30
FEET IN QUAKESRailroads Are Badly Damaged by Tremors in Hawaii

HILLO, Hawaii — (Associated Press) — Seismic disturbances of the last few days have dwindled, the last being felt at 4:30 a. m. yesterday.

The subsidence of the railroad tracks at Kapoho, previously reported at four feet, has increased to eight. It will be several days before the railway can resume operations.

A. J. Lafferty, chief engineer of the railroad, believes that the country below the main fault in the line has settled several feet.

Workmen and policemen attempting to go to Kapoho to repair the railroad were blocked by a new opening in the earth 15 feet wide and 35 feet deep.

Superintendent Boles of the Hawaiian National Park reports that with the telephone ruling lava was detected some distance beneath the earth's surface. In the Puna district there are approximately 100 fissures a foot wide and 30 feet deep running toward the Kilauea volcano.

The road supervisors at Puna reports that the ground has sunk 30 feet. A number of large trees were shaken down by the earth shocks. Fissures in the ground continue to open in many directions, but they are much smaller than previous ones.

SEARCH IN VAIN

No Trace of Col. Grover, Missing from Dayton, Found

DAYTON — (Associated Press) — National Military Home officials announced today that no trace had been found of Lieutenant Colonel C. P. Grover, chief surgeon at the institution and commander of Dayton post number five, American Legion, since Tuesday.

Word was received here late last night from James Barr, of Cincinnati, to the effect that Colonel Grover was seen in that city Tuesday. At which time he cashed a check for $50, which time he was said to have told Barr that he was registered at the Sinton hotel in that city and upon investigation this report was found untrue. The government physician left his home last Tuesday, telling his wife that he was going to town. He has been failing in health for the past year.

DEMOCRATS SEE TAX VICTORY

Senate Minority Optimistic as to the Outcome

COUNT ON INSURGENT AID

Vote on Measure Expected Within Three Weeks

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Senate Democrats claimed enough insurgent votes today to assure adoption of their tax reduction bill.

Leaders of the minority indicated they had received assurances that their "lower income tax, higher inheritance and gift taxes" would be favored by a big bloc on the Republican side of the chamber. At the same time indications were given that two or three Democrats were breaking away from the fold and might swing over to the Republicans for the Mellon rates. The break on the Democratic side will not be sufficient, however, to interfere with minority plans in the voting, leaders felt.

Indication now are the bill may be rushed thru in short order—probably within three weeks.

Chairman Reed Snoot of the Finance committee called for sessions convening an hour earlier than usual and announced he would demand night sessions if any storm of debate would threaten delay.

"HIGH CHAIR" RESTAURANT PATRONIZED BY ROOSEVELT LOSES FORMER POPULARITY

NEW YORK—The "High Chair" restaurant which for half a century has reposed in a sleepy corner of lower Manhattan, and where Theodore Roosevelt used to enjoy corned beef and cabbage, is to pass along with other landmarks of the Grand street neighborhood.

When the old ferries steamed between Manhattan and Brooklyn and when the car barns which housed the ancient horse cars were nearby, the restaurant with its solid mahogany tables flourished. Besides Roosevelt many widely known politicians were patrons.

"Now, they're all gone," mused Harry Tomlinson, its veteran proprietor. "The boys send down for coffee instead of beer. They eat ham and eggs instead of corned beef and cabbage. All the old ones have grown up and their children have moved away."

SAMOAN BOXER-DANSMAN BECOMES CHIEF OF TRIBE ON DEATH OF HIS FATHER

HILO, Island of Hawaii—Faatola Tufale, until recently a student at the Hilo Boarding School, noted in island circles as a boxer and the mainstay of the Hilo crew in the inter-island regatta for several years, has returned to Samoa, the land of his ancestors, to assume the mantle of high chieftain which his late father bore.

Tufale, the elder, died several weeks ago. Now Tufale, the younger, also known as Faatola the Strong, reigns in his stead.

Faatola entered the boarding school in 1918 and soon began to acquire local fame in boxing circles when he started a long series of knockout victories. He rowed on the Hilo crew for four years.

Some time ago he was summoned to Samoa because of his father's illness. Soon after his arrival there the chieftain died. Now Faatola holds sway over the Manua group of the Samoan Islands.

Americans Fall Victims of Revolutionary Conditions

STATIONED AT CAPITAL CITY

Washington Awaits Official Advice as to Situation

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—Comment on the situation in Honduras was withheld in administration quarters today pending receipt of official advice relating to the reported killing of American bluejackets during disturbances attending the revolution there.

The government, however, is known to be ready to deal firmly with the situation if necessary, a force of 167 sailors and nine officers from the cruiser Milwaukee having been stationed at Tegucigalpa, the capital, for several weeks for protection of the American legation and citizens.

The state and navy departments have observed the trend of conditions in Honduras with considerable concern since the government collapsed under the weight of widespread rebellion, and direct advice were sought immediately after unofficial word of the killing of bluejackets was received by way of San Salvador.

Administration officials also waited advice today with reference to the conference arranged for yesterday between representatives of the Honduran ministry and revolutionary factions at the instance of Sumner Welles, American commissioner to the Dominican republic, acting at the suggestion of President Coolidge.

Overnight advice to the state and navy departments contained no word of casualties among the American naval forces.

Officials were inclined to accept the lack of any official report as a hopeful sign. They pointed out that in view of the disturbed conditions in Honduras it would not be unusual if exaggerated versions of the situation had trickled across the border into Salvador.

MAIN-ST PAVING BIDS TO BE FILED SATURDAY NOON

Bids for the paving of Main-st from the Pennsylvania railroad tracks to the Ottawa river will be opened at noon Saturday at city hall. From all indications about eight companies, most of them local concerns, will bid for the job.

Great progress has been made during the past week on the Main-st sewer. The job is to be completed by May 1, in order that work may begin on the paving immediately upon the awarding of the contract.

Three Pieces of Legislation Call for Early Decisions

IMMIGRATION COMES FIRST

Then He Faces the Tax and Bonus Measures

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Decisions which will have a bearing on his own political fortunes and on the nation's economic and political future, will shortly confront President Coolidge. Congress today is preparing to put before him three pieces of legislation, all of which involve tests for Mr. Coolidge. These are the immigration, tax reduction and bonus bills.

The issues bound up in his decision on these bills, observers point out today are:

1.—The president is faced with possible loss of support in California and other Pacific coast states should he veto the Japanese exclusion bill. On the other hand if Mr. Coolidge signs the bill and no other attempt is made by the government to allay Japan's consequent displeasure, ill-feeling between the United States and Japan may follow.

2.—On the soldier bonus bill, the issue is stability of the nation's finances versus the government's obligations to the soldiers. Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is expected to urge a veto.

3.—The issue involved in the tax bill is regarded as one of insistence upon adoption of the administration's tax program, as against tax relief in some degree but of different form. Also the senate finance committee has reported the Mellon program, the measure finally to come from congress is expected to be nearly the compromise measure passed by the house.

President Coolidge himself is maintaining his customary reticence on these questions.

HUGH GRIFFITH ESTATE IS VALUED AT $11,000

OTTAWA — The estate of the late Hugh Griffith, who died April 8, was valued at $11,000 in real estate and $1,000 in personal effects, according to papers filed in probate court. Griffith was a farmer, residing in Sugar Creek, near Vaughnsville. He was a member of the Presbyterian church of Columbus Grove.

Vern L. Elliott, of Vaughnsville, his son-in-law, was appointed administrator of the estate. Griffith left no will. His six children will share the estate equally. They are: Mrs. Vern L. Elliott, of Vaughnsville; Mervyn E. Griffith and Nevada Griffith, both of Columbus Grove; and Robert Griffith, all of Columbus Grove.

TRI-COUNTY FAIR BOARD TO MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

DELPHOS — Meeting of the Tri-county Fair Board will be held Friday night at the Lang Shoe store, and it is intended that this time to make definite plans for the future of the fair board.

Some time ago application was made by the local board to T. H. Brown, secretary of state, for the taking over of the charter of the Allen-co Agricultural society, whose headquarters have been at Lima in the past, but for some time they have been inactive.

According to many of the members here, they have grown, and are at this time able to take over the charter and hold a fair here that will be very elaborate, and as big as ever held in Allen-co.

HE'S ALIVE! LOOK AT HIM!

George Gillespie, the A. E. P.'s "finest and most complete corpse," wants the world to know he still is very much alive. He has been reported officially dead many times. At Romague a shell splintered 19 ribs. Then he was buried in a shell-hole, but managed to crawl out. The hospital he was in was bombed, and the ship he came home in caught fire. But now he can't show any disability and the government has cut off his allowance. He is an electrical engineer at the Hawthorne works of the Western Electric Company in Chicago.

MAY STRIKE OUT GRAFT CHARGES

Donahay Takes Motion Under Advisement in Curtis Case

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Governor Donahay today was asked to strike from the records of the trial of Mayor C. C. Curtis and Safety Director E. E. Curtis of Canton, all testimony tending to prove they had accepted graft money in the protection of bootleggers and gamblers or that the safety director had conspired to murder Rev. Longworth, by Curtis' counsel at the conclusion of the prosecution testimony. All hearsay testimony also was requested to be excluded.

Reasons given by defense counsel for making the motion were that if the Curtis brothers, either or both of them have been guilty of felonies, the matter should be handled by courts of competent jurisdiction where they could be properly indicted and prosecuted and at the same time given guarantees provided by both the federal and state constitutions. Attorney Thomas Turner who made the motion, declared that it was unconceivable that any citizen should be tried on a felony charge without having been indicted by a grand jury.

Governor Donahay took the motion under advisement but promptly overruled another motion by defense counsel that the charges be dismissed and both officials reinstated. DEFENSE TESTIMONY

Last night's session was given over to testimony of a number of prominent Canton business men and manufacturers who told of their "faith in the integrity" of the Curtis brothers.

H. H. Timkin, prominent manufacturer, testified "I know nothing to make me think these men are guilty." He stated "the Curtis brothers were acquitted by a grand jury which did not consider it necessary even to consider evidence for the defense." Timkin said he "would hate to be acquitted by 12 men and then be tried by one."

Police Chief A. S. Lenzler declared there was continuous conflict of authority between himself and Safety Director Curtis and that he had "been made the goat."

Arthur Turnbull, Democrat, four times mayor of Canton, testified "Conditions have been better in Canton during the last year and a half than they were during my administration." M. D. Hatchford, leader, told the governor "90 per cent of the people of Canton believe in the Curtis administration." J. E. Loggman, president of the board of education, pronounced the Curtis administration "the best Canton has had in years."

F. E. Cass, banker and prominent manufacturer, said "The people of Canton are insulted by the position taken by some of these reformers. Had they cooperated with the Curtis instead of disapproving they would not have stirred up the crime, but would have helped the situation."

WOMAN REMOVED DELPHOS — Mrs. William Drake, of Lima and Delphos, who has been ill for some time, was removed to her home in Delphos, Friday afternoon, by the Baxter & Hartner ambulance.

We have no excuse to offer for the slight advance in price over the ordinary kind.

WITNESSES WILL TELL STORIES

Many Are Called to Testify Before Allen-co Grand Jury

BRIBERY CHARGES PROBED

Anti-Saloon League Investigators Appear in Lima

Investigation of rum running, Lima night life, increase in crime and violence and unearthing of attempted wholesale bribery and corruption, faces Allen-co grand jury when it commences sifting evidence of lawlessness Monday.

Nearly a score of witnesses are already scheduled to appear before the jury and tell their stories. Many more are to follow. Some with reluctance.

A sheet of secret subpoenas were handed to Sheriff Crosson to serve Friday. Names of the number to be served could not be obtained.

The grand jury may strike a telling blow to rum running thru the county, evidence of which is daily attracting public attention.

One of the important matters for the jury to consider will undoubtedly be a recent alleged attempt made to corrupt a state official in a liquor case. No new developments in the case were noted Friday.

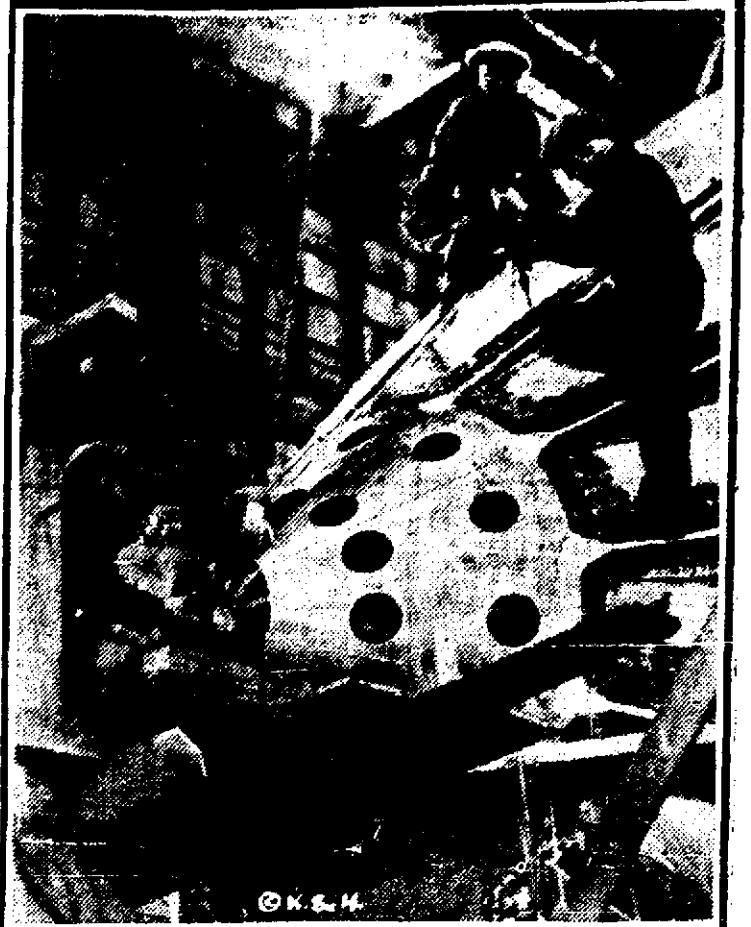

LEADS PROBED

Investigation of the bribery charges, predicted Thursday, materialized Friday with the arrival of investigators for the Ohio anti-saloon league. They learned what had occurred, but did not indicate what will be done. It is a certainty however that the organization will push the case if action is not started locally.

Witness list released Friday contained the names of many members of the Lima police department who are called in cases where they arrested the defendants.

Foremost in the list is the name of Willis Kipker, inspector and

Other witnesses are William Mohl, George May, Frank Killian, R. P. Conkling, Emmett Felvas, Roy Herrett, F. M. Lockhead, Howard Garrigus, Ford Cole, Mrs. C. O. Taylor, Mrs. M. L. Flager, Mrs. Perry, William Rotoff, F. H. Fisher.

JUDGE TO ACT ON BREW CASE

Decision is Expected to be Given
Friday Afternoon

Decision on the legality of home made beer, which may cause wide spread drought in Lima if the verdict to be handed down by Judge J. H. Hamilton, Friday afternoon, is adverse.

The case at issue is that of Chester Kraichinski, Polish machinist, arrested by state and county officers on possession of 36 pints of home brewed beer.

Chester said that it was non-injuring and that he could imbibe a barrel of it and never get hilly. Owing to nature of his work in the Lima locomotive works, his system craves the amber brew, and not city water. The latter beverage made him sick, Chester told the court.

Even the children drank the home brew and were not put under by its influence.

Two chemical tests made showed a difference as to the alcoholic content. One test registered 3.85 per cent and the other later 4.12 per cent alcohol.

If Chester is found guilty, state prohibition sleuths plan to make a clean sweep of Lima homes where home brew is consumed. The brew is to be held as iniquitous as moonshine whisky and courts will be asked to impose drastic fines on all offenders. The minimum fine is $100.

SNOW IN WEST

Six Inches Deep in Denver—
Cold Wave Forecast

DENVER, Colo. — (Associated Press) — Six inches of snow was pelted in Denver streets this morning after an all-night storm.

ST. PAUL, Minn. — (Associated Press) — A cold wave with possible snow flurries will follow the severe electrical storms which visited the northwest last night, according to reports today. Dispatches told of a heavy snow storm in northwestern North Dakota. Duluth reported that storm warnings had been posted on Lake Superior with a northeaster blowing.

AUTO WRECKS BUGGY
VAUGHNSVILLE — Thomas Morgan and Miss Nettie Reese, both of Vaughnsville, narrowly escaped serious injury when the buggy in which they were riding toward Vaughnsville was struck by an automobile. Occupants of the carriage were thrown into the ditch. Morgan sustained several deep lacerations on the head. The buggy was badly damaged.

CHARLES MURPHY TAKEN BY DEATH

Tammany. In the same time the Democrats elected two United States senators, James A. O'Gorman and Dr. Royal S. Copeland and in New York City Tammany had been successful in all the mayoralty campaigns except in 1913 when the late John Purroy Mitchell, a fusion candidate, defeated Edward E. McCall, the Tammany choice.

As a boy Murphy attended public and private schools only a short time. Obligated to earn his own living, he worked as a ship caulker and in a wire works. As a youth he was a leader of the boys in his neighborhood because of his muscular strength, courage and combativeness. He had acquired local fame as the best runner, swimmer and oarsman and as one of the best baseball players in the "gas house district." At the age of 17 he organized the Sylvania club, the nucleus of the Tammany organization in the eighteenth assembly district.

The future Tammany leader retained his humble position as driver of a street car until he had saved $500 which he invested in a saloon. He permitted the Sylvania club and the baseball team to use the second floor of the building as quarters and the place became a sort of community club for the men of the district who met there to further the political interests of the district. His business prospered and by the time he was 32 he was the owner of four saloons. He always took pride in the fact that they were conducted in an orderly manner.

He was a generous benefactor of the Catholic church.

STRICKEN SUDDENLY
Murphy appeared in excellent health last night, according to his secretary, Daniel J. Ryan. He conferred with political associates from Tammany Hall, ate a hearty dinner and retired at the usual early hour. Household servants related that the Tammany leader complained of suffering chills when he arose at 8 o'clock this morning, as was his custom. At 8:10 he breakfasted and almost immediately afterward became ill of indigestion. He also complained of pressure over the heart.

Murphy's valet summoned Dr. J. E. Herrity who lived nearby. Father Lawrence A. Hogan of the Roman Catholic church of the Epiphany, Murphy's daughter, Mrs. James A. Foley and her husband, Surrogate Foley.

A glance convinced the physician that the patient's heart had been stricken, that he was in great pain and near death. He was given an hypodermic stimulant and put to bed. Ten minutes later he died, with the priest, Surrogate and Mrs. Foley, Dr. Herrity and the servants at his bedside. He remained conscious up to the last moment.

The Tammany leader, always faithful, remained so up to the time of his death. To the doctor, who found him in the bath room in agony, the man's greatest concern seemed to be of surprise that he should suffer from indigestion, and of impatience that his heart should seem to have been affected. He did not suspect his illness was fatal.

Mrs. Murphy was at Atlantic City when Mr. Foley wired her that Mr. Murphy was ill.

DRAIN CLEANING WORK STARTED HERE BY CITY

Charles Bobenmyer, Lima street superintendent, Friday began a drain cleaning campaign which will cover each and every street in the city.

Complaints were that drains stopped up by winter weather failed to carry off drainage resulting from spring rains and that lawns are being flooded with debris on this account.

Scott McGinnis leaves Friday after visiting a week with Mrs. McGinnis and daughter, Miss Helen. W. Wayne.

LIGHT FRANCHISE WAR LOOMS

Power Company Stands Pat on 10 Cent Rate for City

DELPHOS — (Special) — Possibility that differences between the city and the Northwestern Ohio Power & Light Co. may go to the state public utilities commission was seen Friday.

Return of Ted Augur, chief engineer for the company, to the city Friday revealed that the company will stand pat on its platform of a 10 cent rate and a 50 year franchise and will not accede to the city's request for a nine cent rate, a five year franchise and a 50 cent monthly minimum.

Plans are being made to put the 10 cent rate in full force even though a franchise has not been obtained. Contracts made with other localities served by the company make it impossible for a lower rate to be charged, Augur said.

What action the city will take is not known. It is probable that the entire matter will be taken up by the city council at its next meeting and that steps will be taken to enforce the lower rate.

LEGION MEETING FRIDAY; COMPLETE DANCE PROGRAM

TWO GUN MAN DIES WITHOUT BOOTS

CALLED HIS TWO ERRORS
Amazing Stories of Daring Brought to Light

DENVER—(United Press)—New-ton Vorce, one of the most picturesque of the old West's two-gun men and a maker of history in the days that gave rise to tales of the wide open spaces and all the rest of it, is dead. But he committed two errors. He lived to the ripe old age of 92 and he died in his bed, with his boots parked in the closet.

Vorce received his training in the handling of firearms during the war between the States, when he served with Mosely's guerrillas. Anxious for more fighting, he came to Colorado after the war, settled in the Deer Trail and Byers country, and set out to fight Indians.

The exploits which made his name a State legend, however, began in 1887, when he was arrested for a minor offense and confined in the Arapahoe county jail. During more of the aforesaid wide open spaces than was available behind the bars, and remembering he had a date with a girl in Deer Trail, Vorce kicked a hole in the jail wall, helped himself to a brace of pistols on the sheriff's wall, appropriated a horse, and rode away.

A posse was organized to capture him. Two horses were shot from under him in the ensuing battle, but he fought off the posse and was not captured until an army posse ran him out of his dugout with a stick of dynamite and subdued him after he came out with both guns blazing.

SHOT OUT NEW LIGHTS
Some years later, in another fit of exuberance, he rode into Evans, shot out every one of its new acetone street lights and coolly rode back down the main street thru words of interdicted silence, shooting as he rode.

Still more years later, in 1905 this was Vorce, who was a firm believer in restricting immigration of foreigners into Colorado, happened on a carload of Greek section hands near Byers, who into the car and "shot up the joint."

Sheriffs were none too anxious to capture him, so he went free until the next September, when he walked into a saloon in Byers, only to be covered by "Lou" Smith, the bartender, and knocked unconscious by a chair in the hands of a traveling man.

Taken to Denver for trial, he ran into a jury which detested foreign labor as thoroughly as he did, and once more was free.

WAITED FOR THE SHERIFF
Returning from the trial he waited to celebrate and stopped to call on Fred Norcross, then station agent but now president of the Greeley Chamber of Commerce, at La Salle. With a revolver in each hand he forced Norcross to dance a jig on the station platform and answered threats that the sheriff would be summoned from Greeley with a retort that he would wait.

When the sheriff and his posse arrived, Vorce was hidden behind a huge cottonwood, and from his ambush covered the men, disarmed them all, mounted one of the horses and drove them all back to Greeley, forcing the men to submit to being driven thru the streets under his weapons.

They soon had more weapons all or he left town, reorganized and started in pursuit. Cornered in the bedlands near Greeley, he forced a sheepherder to put on his clothes and "escape," and while officers pursued the sheepherder made off in the opposite direction.

That was his last big "stunt." Thereafter he worked at the profession he had followed between sprees in his earlier years—cowpuncher. He was a good puncher.

"GOOD OLD DAYS" GONE FOREVER?

Dinner Given in New York Suggests Negative Answer

COST IS PLACED AT $25,000

Internationally Famous People
Guests at Feast

By FRANK GETTY
NEW YORK (United Press)—Who says the "good old days" are gone forever?

Not far from Broadway on the roof of one of New York's largest hotels, Matthew E. Brash, of the American International corporation, a director of the B. M. T. and United Companies, gave a dinner last night to 120 of his friends, a dinner that rivalled in splendor the extravagant entertainments of pre-war, pre-prohibition days.

That dinner cost $25,000. It was arranged with famous large-scale after the manner of a circus "mess." But instead of hungry performers, there sat down to the groaning board such internationally famous people as James A. Stillman, Jesse Livermore, R. J. Reynolds, tobacco king; the Jungling brothers, Charles and John, Jeremiah Dahl, whose name recently was connected with that of Louise Wilson, murdered Texas girl, an auction of whose effects had closed a few hours before at a nearby shop, Pierre Rockefeller, Police Commissioner in light; no end of celebrities.

At one end, on a raised dais, played a Czechoslovakian orchestra of 38 pieces, never before heard in this country.

At the other end, caged lions and beasts brought from the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus, at the "Garden" room and approval of their unaccustomed surroundings. Two piny elephants had been brought with some difficulty to the roof to lend their atmosphere to the occasion.

The choice of freaks from the real circus side-line were housed in a separate tent and given within the banquet tent, reading: "To the Quaker People."

Dancing girls performed. The world famous lady trapeze artists from the greatest show on earth, whirled 98 times on a specially constructed apparatus at about $40 a whirl.

Each guest was provided with a souvenir elephant, made of balsam wood, and bearing his name, to be worn on a silk ribbon around the neck.

A celebrated cartoonist provided a cartoon of each guest with a body of an animal attached. Pierre, the dean of chefs, prepared the solid part of the dinner with his own hands, taking supervision of everything. Seven co-hosts helped entertain his guests. All in all, including the unmentioned refreshments, the dinner would have done credit to those "good old days."

TRINITY CHURCH CLASS PRESENTS PLAY FRIDAY

A six o'clock supper, which precedes the play, is for children only between 6 to 14 years of age. The Junior orchestra will furnish music during the evening. Proceeds will go toward missionary work.

COUNTY HOME JOB BLANKS READY

Examination May 9 for Superintendent of Orphanage

Application blanks for the position as superintendent and matron of the Allen-co children's home can be obtained at the county commissioners' office, J. O. Montague, clerk, announced Friday.

Competitive examination will be held for the position on May 9 at the court house. State civil service examiners will have charge.

Vacancy at the home was created by the death of C. W. Walters, superintendent. Because the matron must be the wife, mother, sister or daughter of the superintendent, Mrs. Walters, present matron must relinquish her position as soon as her successor has qualified. There is no law against a woman being named as superintendent, Montague declared. Salary of the superintendent is $500 a year and maintenance, and that of the matron $750 a year. Fee for examination is 50 cents. The salary is low, commissioners point out, but living of the superintendent and his family, which is free, is rated as being worth at least $2,000 annually.

DO NERVES THINK IS QUESTION ASKED PEPGEN SPECIALIST NOW AT HUNTER'S DRUG STORE

Many Interesting Experiences Related by Lima Citizens Calling at Hunter's Drug Store to Learn of Famous Medicine.

O'Conner Street Man Tells Facts

Throughout the week hundreds of Lima citizens have been calling at Hunter's Drug Store on The Public Square to learn about the new medicine Pepgen which is now being introduced there.

In this medicine has been discovered a nerve tonic of great merit. Every day statements are being given the Pepgen specialist by local citizens who have been restored to good health through its use.

"As I had predicted," said Mr. Hunter, head of The Hunter Drug Stores, "the demand for Pepgen until Thursday night is just a few bottles over one third greater than that of last week. This has been our experience every week for the past month and a half. This, in my judgment, proves that in Pepgen has been found a medicine of real merit. It shows that those who have given it a trial are passing the good word on to their friends."

Many interesting statements are being received every day by the Pepgen specialist now at Hunter's Store on The Square. As one woman remarked: "The way my nerves acted, it would seem they have the power of thought. Pepgen has helped them and I am glad to recommend it."

O'CONNER STREET MAN GIVES ENDORSEMENT
The case of Mr. Philip Archinal, of 235 East O'Conner St., is of interest.

"It was the fifteenth day of March," said Mr. O'Conner, "that I started taking Pepgen. It had been recommended to me very highly, but I put off getting it until one day I felt so bad I could hardly get about. 'I was nervous and irritable. My stomach was out of order and I never could eat a hearty meal without having attacks of gas and bloating. Then I would have pains in my back and left side.

"Finally I got where I felt sore and achy all over. I could not sleep sound at night but would roll and toss for hours. I felt tired and out of sorts with everything."

"The very first week I was taking Pepgen I noticed I was feeling better. My food began to digest properly and I found myself eating a hearty meal without having one of those awful attacks of gas.

"I have taken about four bottles of Pepgen and can truthfully say that I feel better than I have in several years. I go to bed now and get eight hours of good sound sleep. When morning comes I am rested and ready to get up and do a good day's work. It is great, after feeling like I did for so long, to find yourself feeling right again. Pepgen is what fixed me up and I am glad to recommend it. I know it is a fine medicine."

CAUTION: THE GENUINE PEPGEN, which Mr. O'Conner has recommended, is packed in a white and blue carton and may be obtained in Lima only at The Hunter Drug Stores, 49 Public Square and Cor. Main and Wayne Streets and at The Argonne Store. Pepgen stores in nearby towns are:

PRINCE'S TUMBLES WORRY NATION

Cabinet May Officially Curb Activities of Heir

LONDON — (Associated Press) — From the depths of cockney London, a desire that the heir to the throne should use the soft pedal when he goes into the hunting field, a long series of tumbles from his horse which are credited to his highness and which terminated with the narrow escape from injury which he experienced when he was kicked in the chest, has been much for the anxiety of the English people. The newspaper were the first to pick up the matter. They printed columns impressing upon the people a word of cautioning the prince, and featured a long list of hunting and riding accidents which have occurred to him during the last two years.

As a result of the public feeling thus aroused, numerous clubs and societies have adopted resolutions urging the prime minister or someone, to impress upon young Windsor that he should not indulge so freely in this dangerous sport. It is known that persons close to the royal family have often spoken to the prince on the subject, and it is known that the royal parents cast an unsympathetic eye upon these escapades of their offspring, but so far they appear to get only an equally unsympathetic response. To the representations of his friends the prince only laughs. It is thought by many that the premier and his cabinet will step in and gently but firmly inform the prince privately that he cannot take the same risks as other men and that they will frown upon any more such reckless riding.

FAIL TO IDENTIFY MEN SUSPECTED OF ROBBERY

PITTSBURGH — Detectives from Mount Pleasant, Ohio, who arrived here early today failed to identify two prisoners in the Allegheny jail as members of a group of five bandits who robbed the Mount Pleasant bank of $20,000 and murdered the cashier last February. The men held in the jail here gave the names of James Colonna, 27, and Annunzio Paoli, 35. They were arrested after an investigation of the ownership of an automobile which they drove here bearing an Ohio license.

CHICKENS MAKING PROFITS NOW

Poultry Flock Earns Money Even
The Egg Prices Are Low

Spring months are usually the most profitable months of the year for poultrymen, contrary to popular belief. The price of eggs is low, the volume of production is large enough to insure a small margin of profit on every dozen. This statement, made by a poultry extension specialist at Ohio State university, is verified by records of poultry demonstration flock owners in Allen Co. says H. J. Ridge, farm agent.

In continuing, Ridge says: "Higher egg production is obtained, eggs hatch better, and the chicks grow faster and faster. This, no doubt, is due to ideal weather, a longer day, plenty of green food and insects, and opportunity to exercise. Also, broilers are beginning to go on the market and the added income from them helps pay for the expense of brooding."

"Low prices for eggs during these months are a severe handicap, most poultrymen think. But the poultrymen who do not keep records on this flock do not realize that it takes virtually as much feed to maintain 100 birds one month as another; that as a result, during the months of high egg prices, production is low and the cost of producing a dozen eggs is high."

"Aerial cost account records show that the ordinary farmer makes more when egg prices are low because he gets a high production and makes a narrow margin of profit on a large number of eggs. When egg prices are high he makes a wide margin on a very few eggs."

LEADER'S NEWSPAPERS
HONOLULU—Inmate of the Kalahepa House settlement on the island of Molokai, want a newspaper of their own, according to requests reaching John D. McVeigh, superintendent. McVeigh said he had not encouraged the idea but that the patients had been persistent in presenting it.

A few residents of the settlement who have money will back the new journal and are willing to purchase the necessary equipment. The sanction of the board of health has been requested.

AUTO IS STOLEN
Theft of his Dodge sedan equipped with balloon tires was reported to police by Dale Cremon, 422 N. West-st. Surrounding cities have been given a description of the stolen vehicle with requests to aid in the search.

Bride Of Half Year Accuses - Mate In Action

Two Lima wives, one a bride of six months, disillusioned by their marital experiences, instituted action Friday in common pleas court for divorce against their mates.

Mrs. Edna T. James, 218 E. Eureka-st., charges William C. James, a commercial traveler, with failure to support her. The two were married in East Liberty in 1904. They have one child, Mary 17. Mrs. James seeks a decree and a reasonable award of alimony.

Married bliss was short lived for Mrs. Lima Bell McLaughlin, who asserts in a petition naming Herman Leroy McLaughlin, defendant.

The two were married at Kenton last August. Trouble soon developed, the wife says and her mate "drunk and kicked her. He also refused to work and she was compelled to find employment to support herself. The wife asks the court to restore her former name, Lima Bell Perkins.

ENGINEERING IS EXPLAINED

Farmers May Obtain Series of Helps from Farm Bureau

Supply of mimeographed circulars under the title, "The Agricultural Engineering Information Series" has been received by H. J. Ridge, county farm agent, from the agricultural engineering department of Ohio State university. The department has prepared such bulletins in response to requests from Ohio county extension agents and farmers for technical information. These bulletins are free to all residents of the county and may be obtained at the farm bureau office in American bank-bldg.

"Turn on the Water," the first circular in the series, treats of simple water systems. It incidentally gives a short way of determining the distance walked in a year when the farmer has no direct water supply system. What the hydraulic ram is, how it works, what it requires and the amount of water it will pump are the points considered in leaflet No. 2.

In detail the requirements for a poultry house are given in leaflet No. 3, and those of a centralized hog house in leaflet No. 4. Estimating building costs and figuring a bill of materials are explained and illustrated in the fifth leaflet in the series.

Eight of the bulletins are now available, with more to follow, says Ridge.

EXALTED RULER CHRISTEN IS HONORED AT BANQUET

Several hundred members of Lima Lodge, No. 14, B. P. O. E. Thursday night gathered at the honor banquet for E. G. Christen, exalted ruler. The Lima male chorus entertained, and the Hawk-King-Ball players were also on the entertainment program.

At the business session a committee of 35 to make arrangements for the Elks' Charity Circus and Congress of Outdoor Entertainers was selected with Lew Cunningham as chairman. The committee will meet at 7 p. m. Friday at the club to arrange for the summer circus.

Mrs. Gladys Palmer, charming resident of 359 Beauty Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., lends her name to further the cause of TANLAC, the treatment which she declares has restored the joys of good health to her.

"During the past winter," says Mrs. Palmer, "indigestion, heart palpitation, nervousness, poor appetite and loss of sleep, together with headaches, biliousness and dizziness, simply took nearly all the pleasure out of life."

"When I began taking TANLAC my color of health was fading from my face and I felt depressed and worried for fear my health was permanently impaired. But, now I haven't an ailment in the world and am just so happy to recover my health that I want to tell everyone about TANLAC."

EXPEDITION PINS FAITH IN LUCK

Party Prepares to Climb to Summit of Everest

PRAY FOR LATE MONSOON

Success Depends Largely on Weather, Leader Says

CALCUTTA—(Associated Press)

"If we don't get to the top of Everest this time it will not be our fault," was the smiling assurance of General Bruce when he landed in Calcutta as the head of the new expedition to climb the world's highest peak.

"I seldom felt fitter in my life, and all the other members of the party appear to be in similar condition."

"What we are all praying for is a late monsoon. The question of whether we are successful or not will depend largely on this. If the monsoon comes early, our chances will be greatly reduced. On the other hand, if it keeps off until well on in June, it will do us an infinite amount of good. As may be expected, an excursion of this kind must inevitably depend upon luck in various forms, but particularly in the shape of propitious weather."

GENERAL PLANS
The general plans are similar to those of previous expeditions. The start is to be made from Darjeeling. Much care has been expended in the selection of equipment, numerous improvements having been made on the basis of former experience.

"The present expedition," continued the leader, "is intensely anxious to meet the Tibetan government in every possible way. Every care will be taken not to go against the least detail of its wishes. We appreciate the kindly attitude of the Tibetans on this and on past occasions. On the last trip we could not have been better treated."

General Bruce stated that the scientific work of the expedition would be similar to that of previous years, except that on this occasion it was hoped to intensify observations and to secure a better photographic record.

"We are as keen as mustard to be off," he said, "for with all its hardships there is fun in it."

CAMPOR BALL IMITATIONS EFFECTIVE AGAINST MOTHS
ESSEN, Germany — Millions of "camphor" or moth balls, rolling about the world today, are not true camphor spheres at all, according to German scientists who were responsible for the production of a synthetic product which has deceived various kinds of experts including the well known moth.

Most of the real camphor comes from camphor trees growing on the rugged mountain slopes of the interior of the island of Formosa, off the China coast. Synthetic camphor is just as "good" for the moths, it is contended by the chemists, as the real thing, but not quite so beneficial, it is admitted for reoids in the head.

42 ARRESTED
CLEVELAND — A movement to rid the city of undesirables in preparation for the Republican national convention was launched last night in a roundup of suspicious characters resulting in the arrest of 42 men. Similar roundups are planned for one day each week, the day to be changed and kept secret.

GIRL WRITES HER FIRST POEM AT AGE OF 8

NEW YORK—Nathalia Crane, 10, a descendant of John and Priscilla A. Crane, wrote her first poem a year and a half ago. Today a publisher announces he soon would bring out a volume of her verses.

Nathalia's first attempt at versification was inspired by her admiration for the son of the janitor in her Brooklyn apartment house. It was a passing fancy, she said. Since that time she has had approximately 100 poems published in newspapers and magazines in the United States, Canada and England.

GREEN FOODS ARE NECESSARY

Lettuce, Cabbage, Onions and Other Plants Should be Grown

Carrots should have room for greens, lettuce and cabbage throughout the season, since these vegetables are rich in vitamins and mineral salts. H. J. Ridge, county farm agent, says.

For the same reason, and because they will provide the roughage needed by humans as much as by animals, onions, carrots, celery, turnips and beets belong in the plot. The tomato is another garden product that is rich in vitamins. To get the most out of the garden both for the palate and health, Ridge continues, these suggestions may help: use beets when they are small and tender; pick beans when still young and tender; for this stimulates production. Late cabbage, on the other hand may be left in the field until heavy frost arrives. Carrots and turnips may be dug any time when of sufficient size to use. In using Swiss chard, cut the outer leaves close to the ground as soon as they become a foot or more long. Sweet corn should be pulled just as near as possible to the time for preparing it. All of the kale plant may be used, the some people prefer to pull the outer leaves. The larger leaves of leaf lettuce may be picked without injuring the plant.

MANY TRAPPERS' LUNGS FREEZE

Perils of the Arctic Circle Re-counted by Writer

ONLY EYES MAY BE EXPOSED
Frost Overcomes One Suddenly, Almost Painlessly

NENANA, Alaska — (Associated Press)—The "musher" in the Arctic north, where winter prevails about eight months out of the year, must never relax his vigilance if he would survive the perils peculiar to the region.

To the explorer, prospector, scientist, trapper or hauler of mail and supplies who must go north of the Yukon river basin, one of the greatest winter hazards is the lack of shelter for firewood. In some localities the only timber is a small, stunted spruce. When a man faces 30 degrees below zero in sleeping bag and canvas tent, he requires a big log fire and abundant fuel to keep it going. When the Arctic blizzard sweeps down, man and beast are compelled to seek shelter.

In the bitterest cold few lungs can withstand the "scorching" atmosphere that appears to seal them like a flame while the blood is turning to ice. "Frozen" lungs are not uncommon, but there are certain precautions that minimize the danger.

The equipment inside three pairs of heavy woolen socks on each foot; underwear and shirt of wool, but of medium weight; mittens augmented by buckskin gloves; and a full parka, its hood faced with wolverine fur, which does not gather frost and freeze where the mouth sticks. The muskrat or beaver cap has flap to pull down over the ears and under the chin. The shoes frequently are moose back mukluks.

At no time must any portion of the flesh save the eyes be exposed to the frost, and even the eyes must be protected when facing a blizzard. Trappers usually augment this "light" equipment with a complete suit of reindeer furs.

PROCESS OF FREEZING
Submission to the cold of the Arctic has a different effect than might be imagined. Instead of a shivering and a gradual freezing process, one suddenly and almost painlessly. There is a numbness in the more exposed portions, like the feet, legs and hands. Later the jaw becomes stiff, nearly immobile. A minute's exposure of a partly cold hand to low temperature causes the fingers to become stiff and without feeling. It is as if they had gone to sleep. The man in danger of death from freezing is overtaken by a rather pleasant lethargy.

A danger is found in becoming overheated and then trying to cool off. Even when the temperature is below, one's body perspires if all pieces of the clothing are closed. If there are any holes in the equipment, the cold penetrates like the flame from a blow-pipe, boring in rather than spreading. One may have a spot the size of a dime frozen on a finger where there is a hole in glove or mitten, and the rest of the hand then becomes numb. In stopping for rest the uninitiated often tarry too long and on arising wonder why the limbs refuse to function with their wonted suppleness. After several such halts further progress becomes a struggle, and unless a fire is available immediately the chances of freezing are great.

Frozen hands or toes are treated in the time honored way of rubbing them with snow until the circulation is restored.

Horses used to carry outfits into the interior of Alaska are protected from lung-freezing by a covering like a nose-bag, thru which the air is filtered of its biting frost before it is breathed. Nature further guards these horses by causing the hair on their nose to grow until by spring they resemble fur-bearing animals.

RY WORK AIDS IN EDUCATION

Male Sex Gives Impartial Verdict in Many Cases

LEVELAND — (Associated Press) — Jury duty is an education-experience which should not be denied any woman, as they "take a service seriously and show a desire to administer strict justice," according to Miss Belle Sherwin, vice-president of the National League of Women Voters, who is arranging a session for the organization's convention at Buffalo, beginning tomorrow.

If you haven't a woman juror's vote in your state, work for one; if you are entitled to jury duty, exercise the right," urges Miss Sherwin. "I have seen no evidence of an emotionalism, one way or the other, among women jurors. The sensible woman shows precisely the desire to unearth the facts and reach a decision. Neither sex has a monopoly of the virtue. I do believe that men reach decisions after a due process of reasoning. I score I believe women are as well qualified as men to whole question of women's jury service is really one step toward universal justice, one of the highest of American ideals."

DESERPTION CHARGED

This gasoline gives tremendous power —yet saves you 30%

Engineering tests prove this. Gasoline that gives full efficiency in your motor saves you money. No premium in cost!

[Facts given on highest engineering authority]

These facts about motor fuel offer you the key to new performance from your car.

The quick, brisk starting you want—the eager, flying pick-up. The tremendous, steady pulling power that is a new joy every time you drive.

That is what you buy gasoline for. Here, engineers tell you how to get it.

Gasoline that delivers fullest efficiency in your motor.

Yet actually saves 30% of your yearly gasoline costs. These facts have been proved by two years of testing and research work. They are given to you on highest engineering authority.

What's in a drop of gas?

Above we analyze a single drop of this powerful, efficient gasoline. Because one drop is just like every other drop that makes up a gallon—or 500 gallons.

Gasoline is made up of combustible units. Each gallon or 500 drops of it.

The first 10% range of these combustible units is what gives you quick starting.

Then comes the all-important "20% range," as engineers call it. For in this range—up to the 20% mark in your gasoline—you get vigorous, instantly responsive acceleration.

Above that comes the range of combustible units that give you heavy-duty power.

See how perfectly the above analysis of PUROL Gasoline meets these requirements. It was charted from actual performance in hundreds of motors, in every kind of car.

What engineers have done for you

The range of PUROL combustible units gives highest efficiency from the standpoint of ideal motor-performance.

Today "P.C.U." (Purol Combustible Units) are a standard by which gasoline is measured—just as "B.T.U." (British Thermal Units) are a standard measurement of heat values.

Our engineers have spent years in perfecting these specifications of PUROL Gasoline. Now, for the past two years, they have kept careful records of what PUROL Gasoline does—under actual running conditions in a score of different cars.

30% savings

The average car consumes 500 gallons of gasoline a year.

Over a two-year period, cost-records for 38 different cars show:

1. That PUROL gives 3.3% greater mileage.
 2. That PUROL burns cleanly—is practically all turned into power—and does not drip down into the crank-case. By actual tests and analyses of crank-case oils this PUROL saving is shown to be 14.2% of gasoline, in a year.
 3. That the saving from this cause amounts to $2.98 a year in lubricating oil cost. (Motor oil diluted by unburned gas drippage must be replaced—because, so thinned-down, it loses efficiency.)
 4. That the saving in general repair costs, by the increased efficiency of lubricating oil, amounts to $10.33 a year.
- On the first two, actual gasoline savings—87½ gallons at 20¢ a gallon—the total is $17.50 a year.
- The four savings give a total yearly saving of $30.81—30% of the annual cost for gasoline in the average motor car!

Always uniform

This substantial economy is possible only because PUROL gasoline is "built" to give efficiency in your motor. Because it is "built" rigidly to the specifications which give efficient motor-performance.

We are independents in the bitterly competitive oil business. We had to produce quality products to succeed. We have to go right on producing quality products to hold our success.

But fortunately we own our own wells and refineries. We can and do absolutely control all Pure Oil products. We "build" them all to the high standards of quality which have won success for us.

To do it we maintain the strictest refining specifications.

The 5 or 10 gallons of PUROL Gasoline you buy today will perform just as charted above—in actual operation of your motor.

A year from today another filling of your tank with PUROL will give the same motor-performance.

The same gasoline and upkeep savings made possible by PUROL gasoline today will be possible one, two, five years from today.

Because PUROL Gasoline is, and will always be kept uniform—here in your home city, or wherever you happen to buy it.

Test this today

Fill your tank with PUROL today. If possible drain it clean of the gas you are now using.

Drive for a day or for an hour on PUROL. You will not fail to know that you have tremendous new pick-up and power at your command.

For your convenience we show a list of Pure Oil Service Stations and dealers—where you can get PUROL Gasoline.

See how perfectly the above analysis of PUROL Gasoline meets these requirements. It was charted from actual performance in hundreds of motors, in every kind of car.

To Sheriff Croson

Dear Harvey: Springtime does make a man want a fast automobile. I get the hankering myself. And they are particularly fine when one has an expense account on which to run 'em.

I don't blame you for wanting the commissioners to buy that expensive roadster that was captured some days ago. And they'll probably issue some more bonds and buy it. And then some more bonds to keep it going.

Yes, they're nice machines to chase bandits in. I'd like to have one for that purpose. For if chasing bandits was all an automobile had to do in these parts, it would last more years than I expect my flivver to hold up. Witness the big one Tom Lanker's outfit has had for a year or more.

Buy it by all means. If no bandits show up to be chased, there'll be some votes to be chased this fall and it might come in handy for some of the county boys.

LIMA BEANE

To Kite Flyers

Dear Boys: I hope the sport of kite flying will not be dropped as soon as the Kiwanis Kite Contest is over. It has been a matter of much pride for me to watch the kites flying above my city and I hope that when the wind is blowing this summer you will send up the miniature airships for other flights. That will keep you in good trim for the contest next year.

LIMA BEANE

To the Weather Man

Old Top: From the bottom of my heart I thank you for that warm sun yesterday, and my one wish is that you keep it up. I was disappointed in you when I had to spend nearly nine bucks for a ton of coal Monday. The guy that called it black diamonds knew his onions.

LIMA BEANE

To High School Singers

Youngsters: You have gathered from the district around Lima for your annual eisteddfod. I am glad to welcome you and hope that you all do your best. Of course each one wants to win but that is impossible. Generally any plan where everyone is supposed to win proves to be one where everyone loses. If you all do your best it will be a very successful event.

LIMA BEANE

To Arthur Lindemann

Dear Solicitor: I compliment you on your appointment as legal advisor of Delphos. I have heard good reports regarding you and I know that your occupation of the office will be to the advantage of your city. I wish you luck.

LIMA BEANE

To Allen-co Voters

My Friends: The presidential primary is next Tuesday. You will vote your preference for presidential candidates on both tickets by voting for delegates pledged to the various candidates. There are contests on both the Democratic and Republican tickets.

On the Democratic side members of that party will have their choice of Cox and McAdoo when voting for delegates at large. In the district, only Cox has delegates on the ticket.

On the Republican side, Coolidge and Johnson both have delegates at large and in the district.

Democrats of Ohio are being urged to show their state pride and cast their votes for Cox delegates thruout. It is felt, and with much justice, that McAdoo showed poor taste in invading the home state of another candidate. A rebuke for McAdoo from the voters in this primary would not be out of order since he is seeking to divide the support of the man to whom the nomination rightfully belongs this year.

Voters of this county of the Democratic faith should vote solidly for James M. Cox, thrice governor of the Buckeye state and standard bearer of his party in the disastrous election of 1920. Please remember this when you go to the polls—and by all means VOTE!

LIMA BEANE

To Prosecutor Lippincott

Dear Gene: My old friend John Sullivan of St. Marys has announced to the world that you are not a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket. John seems to know what he is talking about for he gives a reason—that there are so many cases that need cleaning up that you do not feel you can take the time to make a campaign.

Hooray, I say. About cleaning up the cases, I mean. But will there be time to go to the bottom of the bribe charges and to look into the source of the ever-increasing supply of poison that is being sold here to men who think they are thirsty?

LIMA BEANE

To T. B. Hospital Workers

Dear Friends: I congratulate you upon the success of your tag day this year. A record of $1,300 reported so far is exceedingly satisfactory. With the X-ray paid for you can take care of other expenses and be ready to equip any new buildings that may be authorized. I hope other reports swell the final total to more than $1,500.

LIMA BEANE

To Chief John Mack

Dear Jaw: Your statement in regard to fire prevention is well put. It is given at a time when many fires result from burning trash. Sparks are carried by the wind and flames are easily spread by dry grass. Several grass fires have already been reported this spring and more may be seen if care is not exercised. I hope each of my citizens takes your message to heart.

OVER THE FENCE

(BY HAL COCHRAN)

It's only a fence but the use is immense of the fence that stands out in the yard. For every housewife spends a share of her life swapping sugar and butter and lard.

She'll lean on the fence when there's naught else to do and call to the neighbor next door. The air rings aloud with a merry yoo hoo, and the borrowings started once more.

"Much to my sorrow, I find I must borrow a couple of eggs and some lard. I've started my baking and really, cake making, without these two items is hard."

The neighbor complies and she earnestly tries to indicate gladness to loan. But thoughts that are deep are "why doesn't she keep these things that she needs of her own?"

Like Old Mother Hubbard, mom goes to the cupboard and finds that it's bare of things, hence the things by the score that should come from the store are the things that come over the fence.

OUR SOCIETY NEWS

Even the Mary Livevires did throw John Henry down to marry a salesman. John has decided to live thru it. At first John started out to drink himself to death, but after he first night found it made him feel so bad next day. This Lima stuff is getting awful.

BAD NEWS FROM CONGO

Bad news from the Congo today. Terrible news. This is putting it mildly. Ten years ago you could buy a wife there for 10 goats; now a first-class wife costs 43 goats.

Of course now, you might be able to get a wife that looks ragged around the ears, or one with no chin, or one with too much chin, for 30 or 35 goats, but it pays to get the best wife you can.

However, the upkeep on a Congo wife is really very slight. Except for a few minor repairs from time to time the first payment is the last.

It is not like getting an American wife, who needs a new coat of paint every morning and a general overhauling every time the styles change.

EARLY SYMPTOMS OF CANCER OF STOMACH

Cancer is a group of diseases, not a specific disease. Skin cancer (epithelioma) is a fairly benign disease—a patient may have it for 10 years before he notices it at all, such as a wart, a little spot on the lip, or more typically a little pimple on the cheek an inch below the eye.

Then it may begin to increase in size and go for several more years unless removed when the suspicion is first aroused. Then there is sarcoma, the most rapidly fatal kind of cancer, which may develop in a baby, a child or a person of any age, and bring death in a few months. Finally there is the most common type of cancer, occurring at or beyond middle age, affecting internal organs, and proving fatal unless surgically removed, in from one to three years.

One in every eight women, and one in every 12 men who die over middle age die from cancer. Thus the disease is an everyday occurrence, and one which is quite as likely to come to you as to anyone else. Cancer is not hereditary, and it is not contagious, so there is no use worrying about those two points. There is no good reason to think injuries cause cancer, other than coincidence, but there is good and sufficient reason to believe prolonged irritation favors the development of cancer, as is seen in pipe smokers' cancer of the lip, cigar smokers' cancer of the tongue and throat, cancer of the stomach, occurring in the near or base of a healed stomach ulcer, and cancer of the womb occurring most frequently in mothers of many children—in the scars of the lacerations which are produced at childbirth. Suggestive signs of cancer of the stomach are:

"Dyspepsia appearing in a person of middle age who has been healthy heretofore. Loss of weight. Vomiting without ascertainable cause. Pain in or about the region of the stomach following meals. Later symptoms are Anemia, perhaps a lump palpable in the upper abdomen, vomiting of "coffee ground" material or blood. Difficulty in swallowing. Distaste for meat. Loss in strength.

The diagnosis is made positive by examination of the gastric juice after a test meal.

Of course, the only treatment that offers any chance of saving life is early operation "Dyspepsia" and loss of weight, with persistent symptoms pointing to the stomach, are in themselves ample evidence of the need of any exploratory operation when they develop in a person of middle age previously well.

Churngold has never been offered to the public as a cheap product—it has always been sold strictly on its merits as a pure, palatable staple food.

We do claim, however, that Churngold is economical. No spread approaches Churngold's quality costs so little. There is an added saving because Churngold keeps sweet and fresh for a surprisingly long time—you can use it right down to the last ounce because it doesn't spoil, even in the hottest weather.

No other spread at any price approaches Churngold in flavor and you have only to use it once to appreciate the decided economy of its keeping qualities.

AIR JOURNEY TO JAPAN BEGUN

Frenchman Out to Beat World in Non-Stop Flight

FIRST LEG IS COMPLETED

Aviator Lands at Bucharest, Making 1,300 Miles in 11 Hours

PARIS — (United Press) — Lieutenant Pelletier d'Oisy, who flew a French military airplane from Villa Coublay, here at dawn Thursday, successfully completed a non-stop flight at Bucharest, it was officially admitted today.

The flight is the first leg of a series of 1,400 mile jumps destined to take the airplane to Japan in world's record time and demonstrate France's supremacy in the air.

The air ministry, which now conducts exclusive United Press dispatches, regarding what was to have been a secret long-distance flight attempt, reports that Lieutenant d'Oisy came down at Bucharest at 5 p. m. yesterday, having made the flight to the Rumanian capital, a distance of more than 1,300 miles, in a little over 11 hours.

It was the first Paris-Bucharest non-stop flight. When over Bavaria, the aviator encountered terrific rainstorms, but weathered them.

On his way to Japan d'Oisy plans to make the briefest halts and, he will attempt to sleep while flying, giving his mechanic pilot the machine.

SUCCESS ANNOUNCED

The machine took off from Villa Coublay secretly.

When the United Press reported its departure and plans for the Japan flight, the ministry at first disclaimed knowledge of the attempt.

Today, however, after it was learned that d'Oisy successfully had completed the first lap, the ministry officially announced his success.

The big Breguet carries enough gasoline to permit successive jumps of 1,400 miles. The second halt probably will be at Aleppo. Thence d'Oisy will fly to Bagdad, Bender Abbas and follow the usual route across India to Rangoon, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Peking, Seoul and Tokio, without special preparations having been made anywhere.

It is being carried out with typical French spirit of dash and disregard for danger. Lieutenant d'Oisy carries no spare parts, but has bananas, rum, coca cola, chocolate and biscuits.

The flight is not an around-the-world effort, as it is planned to end it at Japan.

SAFETY RALLY PLANS ARE NOW NEARING COMPLETION

Plans for the B. & O. railroad safety rally to be held at Memorial Hall on the evening of April 29 as a prelude to the annual "Safety First Month" are rapidly nearing completion, local officials have announced.

The safety campaign will last during the month of May and loving cups will be awarded to the winning divisions in each of the three sections. Accidents will be reported and tabulations made according to the rules of the interstate commerce commission.

37 Years of Progress

THIRTY SEVEN years of growth and constant planning for bigger, better things.

"Year by year we've grown and Saturday we'll pass our 37th milestone."

To our thousands of regular patrons we want to say, "Thank You" and as an assurance of sincerity we will say it with "VALUES"—but, to the many women in Lima and vicinity who are only casual patrons, the 37th Anniversary sale is especially directed.

To continually grow "bigger and better" we must have more customers and the tremendous efforts which we have put forth for this event will undoubtedly convince you that we really want more of your patronage.

Not only will we offer the most wonderful values of our entire 37 years but we are pleased to announce that a committee of seven prominent women have consented to select thirty-seven of the most outstanding values and certify them as such. Their judgment is a guarantee of their worthiness.

To our regular patrons such a guarantee is unnecessary—but to those who don't know us so well this warranty of Absolute Savings—Dependable Merchandise—Genuine Value Giving—is particularly significant.

HIS BROTHER'S WIFE

by RUDY AYRES
© NEA SERVICE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

The marriage of Dolly and Nigel Bretherton proves an unhappy one. When war is declared, Nigel is glad to enlist. He leaves Dolly in the care of his friend, Mary Furphy. Nigel is killed in action and Dolly marries the old sweetheart, Robert Durham. Dolly and Robert sail for America, leaving Mary in Dolly's flat.

When Nigel's older brother, David, calls to see Nigel's widow, Mary is ashamed to tell him of Dolly's marriage. David mistakes Mary for his brother's wife and asks her to come to live at Red Grange with him and his aunt.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Just for that one short day spent there with Nigel she had been so happy—so very happy. Even now, too it was three years ago, she had but to close her eyes to see the old house, and the belt of trees, and wonderful sloping lawns.

David held out his hand.

"Write and tell me when you have made up your mind," he said.

Her fingers shook in his kind, friendly grasp. She knew that already she wished to make up her mind, knew that she would sacrifice anything to go back there, even if just for one day—one week. But she did not tell him so now, and presently he went away, leaving her alone once more.

All day long the torment of what she wanted to do haunted her; she even found herself weighing up the probable chances of discovery. They were so very small.

So few people who had known Nigel as one of the Brethertons of the Red Grange had ever known him after his marriage in London. And Dolly had never been a girl to make friends; she had dropped almost entirely out of her own set when she married, in the hope the Nigel's circle would take her up. When she found that such a hope was vain, she had not troubled to create a world of her own.

And now she was on the other side of the world. She might never come back, and even if she did—well, she was no longer Mrs. Nigel Bretherton.

"And I loved him best!"

Mary hugged that knowledge tight to her heart when she lay awake at night, torn with conflicting emotions.

She felt as if her heart were fighting her conscience—her heart that longed to go and do this thing, and her conscience which would not let her give in.

CHAPTER XVI

A Chance Encounter

She rose, after a sleepless night, with a splitting headache. It was raining and cold; the whole world looked dreary and depressing. It was one of those days when one feels as if the only possible manner of passing the time is by drawing the blinds against the chill, uninviting outside, and banking up a big fire.

But Mary sat down by the window and stared into the street.

Once she began to write a letter to David, but after the first few words she laid down her pen and could not go on.

The paper lay on the table beside her, with its date and "Dear Mr. Bretherton" staring up at her.

What could she say? How could she answer him?

To tell him the truth, of course, was the obvious way, and yet her heart clung aching to the memory of that one day amid the beauties of Red Grange. She must go—she must!

But the miserable indecision continued. She put on her hat and coat, and went out into the wet world. The chill, dazzy air stung her pale cheeks into a faint flush, and soothed the throbbing of her head.

"I will go—I will!" she told herself, as she retraced her steps.

But when she reached the flat again she knew that she was as undecided as ever.

What to do? What to do?

She ate her lunch without appetite. The little maid hovered anxiously about her.

"You haven't heard from Mrs. Bretherton yet, I suppose, miss?" she asked hesitatingly.

"Yes, I have. I thought I told you. She is having a sea trip."

The little girl started.

"I'm in rooms," she explained. "Not bad rooms, either, considering I only pay twenty-five shillings a week."

Mary smiled; she found his frankness engaging.

"Awful thing, this boat being lost, isn't it?" he said again, after a moment, in a shocked voice. He indicated the folded paper on his knee.

"I haven't heard anything about it," said Mary. "I haven't seen an evening paper."

"It's the Miltane—she was bound for Buenos Ayres—runned by a tramp steamer in a fog or something—the details are not very certain yet, but they say hardly anyone was saved."

Mary was staring at him, wide-eyed, horrified.

"The Miltane? Oh, are you sure?"

He looked up quickly, dismayed.

"I say, do you know anybody on it? I'm awfully sorry. Look for yourself."

He put the paper into her nerveless hands, but she could not read—everything seemed to dance before her eyes.

"Read it to me."

He obeyed in a troubled voice. One or two passengers near them were listening with interest; Mary's white face and startled exclamation had arrested their attention.

The young man broke off suddenly.

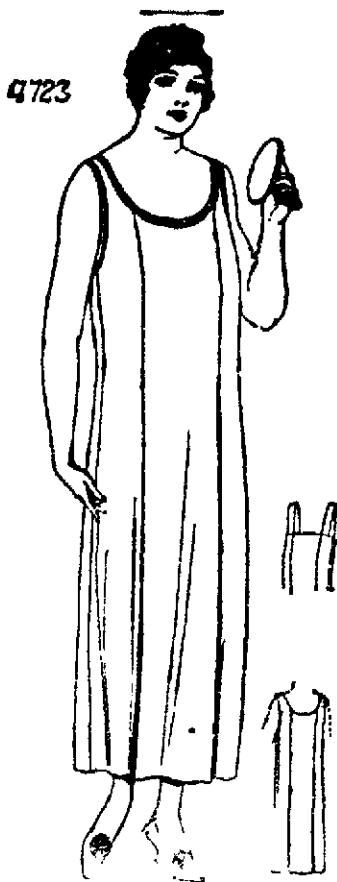

"Shall we get out and walk?" he suggested. He thought Mary was going to faint.

She obeyed with pathetic eagerness and haste; she could not bear the gaze of those curious eyes about her.

When they were on the path, the young man drew her hand thru his arm. He had jammed the paper into an overcoat pocket.

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM SALLY ATHON-TO BEATRICE GRIMSHAW

Well, Bee, I have gotten back here from Sam's funeral and gone to work again. All the old life is over. I feel just as though I had turned my face and started out in an entirely different direction.

Some people would tell you, if you had described me to them that I am perfectly heartless, but I contend that I am only frank. I cannot help but feel free, as though I had shaken off some great burden that was holding me down. I expect even you, dear phlegmatic Bee, will shudder a little as you read that last sentence. I know, however, that many another woman under the same circumstances would if she told the truth, say the same.

Sam had really ceased to love me. He was tired of me as I was of him. The only difference between us was that Sam wanted still to dominate me, tell me what I should do, even color my opinions. He could not get rid of that old, conventional idea that as long as I was his wife in name, I was his possession; and although he had lost his love for me—lost the only thing that made our partnership something that might not be easily broken—he still desired to be the ruling power of my existence. He wanted to go his own way but insisted upon sharing the direction of mine.

I, on the other hand, was perfectly content to let him do as he pleased. I did not particularly care what he did, as long as he didn't bother me with it. Our life together was over. I could not by any stretch of imagination bring him in to my orbit again.

I believe lots of women feel this sense of freedom, Bee, as they sit behind their crepe veils and hear the minister intone a description of the virtues of the deceased. I sometimes think that the fashion of heavy crepe veils was started by some woman who was averse to letting the public see, not her grief, but her relief.

We're only human, and humanity is more or less hypocritical. Hypocrisy is the attribute that animals take on with souls. A dog never makes believe—he either loves or hates. He just does one or the other and that's all there is of it.

Thank you, dear, for not writing me the conventional letter of condolence. You made it possible for me to talk to you, to pour out my inmost heart, and that is something that rarely comes even with a friendship as loyal as yours. I truly appreciate it, dear. We always want to tell some one something of ourselves, to give vent to some self-expression; but few of us can turn ourselves inside out to any one as I do to you, with the sure knowledge that that person will understand.

I don't know why I'm so sure of you, Bee, for I know absolutely that you do not always approve of me. Perhaps it's because I know that I am so different from you, that I bring into your quiet, conventional life something that speaks of excitement and thrill. That's rather egotistical, is it not? Right here is where I stop talking about myself, and tell you something that may interest you more.

WOOL PRICES TO STAY STEADY

duction Through World Shows Tendency to Grow Smaller

Wool growers of Allen Co. have one thing to regret: they do not have as much wool as many years ago as they would like to have. H. J. Ridge, county extension agent, says that the extension analysis of wool production and marketing figures gives weight to statement that Ohio wool growers have more cause for encouragement this year than they've had at any time within the past six years. He says the factors causing the encouragement are:

1. The United States produces 10 percent of the world's clip wool, it consumes 25 percent. 2. Wool production has decreased about 500 million pounds since 1909-1913. The 1932 clip was about 46 million pounds below that of 1922. The immediate need of wool production is down 10 percent from the principal wool producing countries other than the United States indicate that this year's clip will not equal last year's. Wool on hand has been much reduced during the past year. Wool prices of the British-Australian wool realization association acquired during the period of the war decreased from 913,215 bales on January 1, 1923, to 209,614 bales on January 1, 1924. Reports from South America suggest similar reductions.

Here in Ohio, Ridge points out, the past year wool prices have ranged about 45 cents a pound, or 115 percent above the prewar price. Few farm products are now going as high a price.

In view of the decreased world production and the low price of wool on hand, sheep ought now to be properly cared for the farmer.

FE'S SUIT ANSWERED BY WILLIAM L. HART

LOS ANGELES—Mrs. Winifred Westover, Hart's former wife, has work really is a desire to "commemorate the unhappy domestic difficulty" which led her to separate from her actor-husband, William S. Hart, the latter alleges in an answer to his wife's suit to set aside a portion of their $200,000 separation agreement which forbids Hart to accept any employment or pay or allow himself to be photographed for motion picture or advertising purposes.

Mrs. Hart formerly known to the world as Winifred Westover, explained in her suit that she could not $500 weekly in the films, and needed the money, but the agreement she had signed prevented her from doing so and therefore prohibited her from earning her living. Hart's answer contends that her income from trust funds he established for her and her child amounts to $9,650 a year, making unnecessary for her to work. Besides, he adds, she never earned more than $200 a week.

WOMAN IS SOUGHT BY POLICE

Murder is Charged to Brilliant Young Chicago Attorney

INFATUATION IS MOTIVE

Investigation of Pennsylvania Train Proves Without Result

Nation wide search for Mrs. Wanda Stopa, beautiful young attorney and former assistant district attorney of Chicago, charged with murder, centered in Lima Thursday afternoon following a report from Samuel M. Hamilton, states "Corney" of Chicago, that the woman was on the 15 Pennsylvania train in Lima.

Police Chief T. A. Lanker, Detective Inspector Willis Kipker and Detectives Hargrove and Godfrey searched the train as it drew into the city but no one answering the description of the accused murderer was on the train.

Mrs. Stopa Thursday shot and killed Henry Manning, aged caretaker at the Palos Park Suburban home of Kenly Smith, 40, wealthy advertising man. She also fired two shots at Mrs. Smith, both going wild. Manning was shot when he attempted to eject Mrs. Stopa from the Smith home. Mrs. Stopa wanted to kill Mrs. Smith to get her out of the way so she could marry Smith with whom she was infatuated.

A man, said to be Vladimir Glasow, husband of the slayer, drove the car in which the woman escaped. Mrs. Smith told police.

When last seen the car was speeding toward Chicago.

WIFE TELLS STORY

Mrs. Smith told police that she knew of the woman's infatuation for her husband.

"She wanted me to divorce him so that she could marry him," Mrs. Smith told police. "My husband did not want to marry her. He was her friend and he was sorry for her because she was married to a man who was making her unhappy."

The money that Smith advanced and the other attentions showered on the woman were due to his admiration for her intellect, ambition and enthusiasm to make her mark as a brilliant lawyer, Mrs. Smith said. Mrs. Stopa, who retained that name despite her marriage, is of a petty noble family of Poland. Her father modeled many of the statues for the world's fair at San Francisco and has a reputation of a modeler of note.

Glasow, known to many as "Count Glasow," also is a member of a Russian family.

Smith met Mrs. Stopa in the Bohemian quarter of Chicago in 1922, and the "intellectual friendship" was maintained until Smith sent the girl away.

MEASLES SHOULD BE DELAYED

County Healthier Sutter Warns Against Disease Dangers

Beware—It's the open season for measles.

This warning was issued Friday by County Health Commissioner J. J. Sutter, after a number of cases of the disease had been reported to him from various parts of the county.

"Parents are careless with their younger children," says Dr. Sutter, "as most of them believe measles is a harmless disease, and that it is better for their children to have the disease early in life rather than have it when older. Perhaps they will realize their mistake when they learn that 90 per cent of the fatal cases occur during the first five years of life."

DELAY DISEASE

"If measles can be delayed until children reach the school age, the death rate can be greatly reduced. The younger the child, the greater the danger."

Measles is one of the most contagious of diseases and its suppression can be brought about by isolation of cases. Every case should be reported to the board of health immediately so that the board can take the proper steps toward its isolation.

Symptoms of the disease are coughing, sneezing, running nose, inflamed and watery eyes. These appear about the ninth day after the child is exposed to a case. The rash does not appear until three or four days after the first symptoms are noticed.

More than 30,000 cases were reported in Ohio last year for the months of March, April and May, says Sutter.

CHARTERED SCHOONER ON SOUTH SEAS SEARCH FOR POLYNESIAN RACE ORIGIN

HONOLULU — Down in the South Seas, among the coral-fringed islets of the Central Pacific, Edwin H. Bryson Jr., assistant otomologist with the Bernice P. Bishop Museum of Honolulu, is searching for a slender thread of evidence which will add to the knowledge necessary to determine the origin of the Polynesian race.

Aboard the 75-ton schooner France, in company with the scientists of the Whitney South Sea expedition, the young man has visited the Danger Islands, has traveled southeast from them to the Island of Nassau, northwest to the Phoenix group, and south again to the Union Islands, from which point he will return to Pago Pago, Samoa, where plans will be completed for a visit to British Fiji and Tonga.

The Danger Islands, three small atolls with their surrounding reefs, 700 miles distant from Rarotonga, were misnamed, over 100 years ago, by Commodore Lord Byron. Out of the track of the hurricanes, they lie in a calm where vessels may anchor in safety the greater part of the year. Koko and Ratoe, the northernmost, are about 20 feet high, and are well covered with cocoanut groves. They are inhabited by a simple, honest, contented people who, since the sailing ships from the coast of Peru ceased their depredations many years ago, have increased in number to about 500, and whose principal occupations are the gathering of cocoanuts and, from the bottom of the lagoons, pearl shell and beche-de-mer.

In that region lies the evidence which, if the history of the primordial races of the Pacific is to be more than a collection of expanded notes, must be gathered together in this generation.

CASE DISMISSED

WASHINGTON—The complaint of the Valley Camp Coal Co. against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad charging unreasonable rates on bituminous coal from points in West Virginia and Ohio to Lorain, Ohio, for trans-shipment by lake was dismissed today by the interstate commerce commission.

SYDNEY, Australia. — The Wadding Pool at the Jenolan Caves here, into which coins are thrown for two local hospitals, has once more been cleared, the record sum of $1,755 being gathered.

This represents about 13 months collection. The collection is made up mostly of small coins including 10,137 three-penny pieces and 13,381 pennies.

MARRIED

SEATING MARCH

CHRISTIANA—The world championship seating male between Arthur Staff, of the United States, and Oscar Mathieson, the Swedish holder of the championship, has been abandoned. After long negotiations between the authorities and between Staff and Mathieson over the prize money, the slaters indulged in a series of newspaper articles attacking each other with the result that Mathieson declared he would not meet the American.

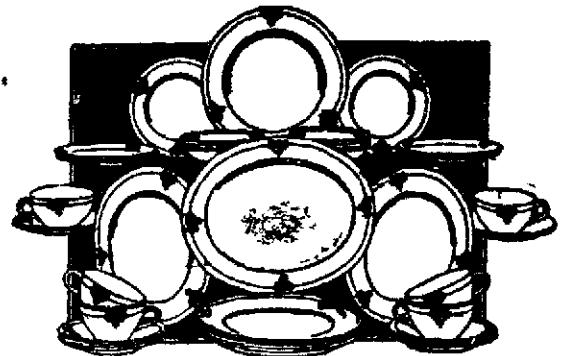

Rev. J. O. Hilary, pastor of the Epworth M. E. church, will be the speaker at the Lima Rescue home Friday night. The service will begin at 7:30 p. m. Rev. F. W. Rohlfing, pastor of the St. Paul Lutheran church, will be the speaker at the Sunday afternoon service.

WOMAN IS LOYAL TO KILLER

Stands by Husband Who Avenged Son's Murder

TIED AT LAW'S DELAYS

Wife Talks on Shooting in Court at Chicago

CHICAGO — (Special) — "Ten months' waiting, ten continuances, and no justice in sight."

So reasons Mrs. Anna Sexton, contemplating the law's slow progress which her husband Patrick just accomplished by two pistol bullets into the body of Jack Rose.

Such is the logic and the justice of the mother weeping for her son, whether in today's modern city or lack in the cave of yesterday's ten thousand years. It is the ancient justice of an eye for an eye, a life for a life.

The Sextons had waited since last summer, brooding at home with their widowed daughter-in-law, Marie. They wanted Rose punished for the murder of Frank Sexton. Marie's baby arrived, but no trial for Rose.

For the tenth time they went to court. And again they witnessed a continuance.

As they emerged, the father became the avenger, and primitive justice was appeased.

"Surely we've had trouble enough," says Mrs. Sexton.

"They won't punish Pat for this. They won't take him away from us at home, when Rose already had taken away our boy."

"Frank was our pride, and he would have been so happy with the baby. He died, tho, and the law was always compliant when Rose wanted to delay. And now they're holding Pat because he executed a judgment of his own."

"You see these things differently, maybe, when it's your own boy who was taken from you."

There's no overlooking the bitter sorrow of the woman who lost her son and whose husband may be facing a gallows in the dim future. But likewise there's no escaping a sense of pride, or of satisfied wrath, that the slayer of the boy has been compelled to pay.

In this joins the pretty Marie, comfort and reliance in all the family's heartache. She's just like a daughter. She sees things from the same viewpoint.

Not so the law. Justice has been outraged in her own temple, declares State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe.

"Continuances, even as many as ten, are not unusual in criminal cases under present crowded conditions on our docket," he says.

"Sexton now is saying he shot in self-defense. But every fact shows it was a disregard of all law and a black unreasoning revenge. It was the spirit of barbarism, not of civilization."

"In this case as in the other, the law must act with cold, regular justice and resist the temptation to sentimentalize."

PUPILS IN CITY FOR CONTEST

Total Number of Scholars Entered May Reach 650

More than 500 contestants from nine high schools in Allen and adjacent counties arrived in the city shortly after noon Friday to take part in the annual district high school contest to be held at Memorial hall Friday afternoon and evening. An additional hundred from the two Lima high schools will swell the total to nearly 650 participants.

High schools which will be represented at the music contest are: Lima South, Lima Central, Lafayette, Bluffton, Delphos, Pandora, Wapakoneta, Van Wert, Findlay, Gomer and Vaughnsville. The last two schools, with a combined team, makes a total of ten teams that will participate in the festival.

Four events are entered for the afternoon session, which begins at 2:00, and the remaining six will be run off at the evening session at 7:30. Numbers are: Mixed chorus, boys' glee, girls' glee, mixed quartet, boys' trio, girls' trio, soprano solo, alto solo, tenor solo and baritone solo.

Winners in the different numbers will be given points, which will be added to each school's total. Prizes will also be given the first-place winners in each event. L. Powell Evans, Atlantic City, N. J., will be the judge. Rev. William Surdival, Ottawa, will be the conductor of the day.

OIL PROBE BEGUN BY GRAND JURY

New Charges Are Made in the Lease Cases

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Selection of the grand jury before which is to be presented the criminal charges growing out of the senate's oil investigation was completed today in the District of Columbia supreme court.

The jury immediately retired to its quarters with an assistant state attorney and the presentation of preliminary evidence was begun. Atlee Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts, special government oil counsel, are assisting the district attorney's office in the presentation of the case.

LOS ANGELES — (Associated Press) — Edward C. Finney, acting secretary of the interior during a temporary absence of Secretary Fall, was named in an amended complaint filed in federal court yesterday in the government's suit to cancel Elk Hills naval reserve oil leases granted the Pan-American Petroleum Co. and the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Co.

The amended complaint which adds 160 acres to the approximately 32,000 acres now held under receivership pending outcome of the litigation, alleges Finney delivered to the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport Co. a letter conferring upon the company "an especially valuable right to a lease to lands then known to contain great and valuable deposits of petroleum" and later arranged the details of the lease with an officer of the company.

The letter, the complaint continues, "was written with the intent that said land should be acquired by defendant secretly without competitive bidding and without right or authority in the officers of the United States who executed the same."

Baldness Prevented by New Discovery

Science has perfected a new scalp treatment. It works in an entirely new way. It overcomes baldness by attacking the cause. It treats simultaneously each one of four conditions to which 90% of all hair troubles are due.

It removes dandruff, dead tissue and caked sebum that clog up the hair follicles choking life out of the hair and preventing new growth. It penetrates deep into the hair shaft, cleaning it of impurities and destroying the harmful bacteria that sap hair vitality. It stimulates the scalp tissues to action, increasing the blood circulation and bringing proper nourishment to the starved hair roots. It regulates the oil glands to give off the proper amount of sebum required to lubricate and preserve the hair.

Falling hair ceases as if by magic, dandruff and itching scalp disappear almost at once. The hair grows thicker and full of life and lustre. New shoots soon start to grow. The results are really amazing.

CINCINNATI MAKES PIRATES WALK PLANK IN OPENER

REDS GET TO MEADOWS AND WIN A GREAT GAME

All last season there was something about the offerings of Lee Meadows that was unfathomable to the Cincinnati Reds, and they went the whole season without counting a victory from the Pirates with this pitcher in the box. But this same Red tribe in the game played in Pittsburgh Thursday slammed his offerings to all parts of the lot and ended the game with a 5-4 victory. Pete Donahue, the elongated disciple of Spalding from Texas served a mixture of straight and crooks the Pirates could not hit for the first six innings. He wobbled slightly after that and were it not for his perfect control would have ended the contest disastrously so far as the Reds were concerned. Pittsburgh got over half of the hits that counted in the seventh and ninth innings.

Cincinnati got no less than nine hard wallopers in four innings in the first four innings, and it was lucky that they did, because otherwise the Pirates would have counted most. There was a large crowd of dyed-in-the-wool Cincinnati rooters that journeyed over to Pittsburgh to see the game and it is said that there were so many particular occasions when it was absolutely necessary to use their vocal organs in such a robust tempo that Pittsburgh drug stores have exhausted the supply of throat lozenges Friday.

Sammy Boone came in for an undue amount of praise. He is credited with two triples into the crowd that lined the field, which counted on the turntable up to 27,000 devotees. He drove in the first run, scored two himself and was responsible for another. He was cleverly aided by Burns, Daubert, Harper and Pincelli. "The Reds" are a fast fielding team, don't you think so?" timidly queried one of those Cincinnati fans, a visitor from New York. "Just wait," was the answer. And the Red discipline was waiting, with a smile on his face clearly and unmistakably indicating that he is certain that the Reds are fast. At least they are starting this season with a bang and a snap that proves clearly that their idolized leader of last season Pat Moran is not forgotten.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — (Associated Press) — Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh five to four today in a close game which opened the home season for the Pirates. Donahue and Meadows pitched the complete game for both teams although the latter was hit hard. Twenty-eight thousand fans turned out for the opening game.

400 Teams Are Gathered At Relays

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
PHILADELPHIA — (United Press) — More than four hundred teams from the United States, Canada and Great Britain were gathered here to compete in the annual Pennsylvania relay carnival.

Approximately 4,000 athletes are entered in the 98 events listed on the two-day program, which includes a flood of relay races and a number of special field events.

The track, wetted down by a heavy rain earlier in the week, was lightening fast today and promised a new record in the sprint medley relay race, the feature event of the opening day card.

Foreign entries are headed by the team from Cambridge University, England, which is entered in the sprint medley and the two-mile medley race, the record for which has been broken twice in the last two years.

Eddie Liddle of Edinburgh, British sprinting champion, is one of the star entries in the special 100-yard dash which has one of the finest fields ever entered in the event.

Clark of Johns Hopkins and Bowman of Syracuse are among the leading stars to oppose the Scot in the dash.

The first event today will be called at 2 p. m. and the last is scheduled for 5:30 p. m.

Entries from American colleges include all of the big eastern universities, several from the middle west, one from Texas and several from California.

Manager Ramer, of the Philadelphia Athletics, states that he has signed Minor King to pitch. King has just returned from the south where he was signed by one of the Southern league teams. After spring practice he was farmed to one of the Florida league teams, and while connected with that team pitched winning ball, winning five out of seven games he took part in. Ramer announced that he will pitch for the Athletics against Tiffin on May 4. The Athletics will play North Baltimore.

Halloran Is After Hard Hitters

Hitting strength in Lima's baseball club is sought by Manager Bernie Halloran who is negotiating with two former Texas league players to sign contracts to play here this summer in the Ohio-Indiana league. Halloran declined to give out names of the two outfielders but it is understood that one of them is "Shotgun" Dodd, millionaire ball player, who was formerly a familiar figure in baseball circles around Canton, Massillon and Akron in the three city fight for baseball honors. Dodd is an all-around ball player. In the Texas league he played shortstop, was a utility pitcher and also played the outfield. Dodd is associated with his father in oil enterprises but every summer he plays professional baseball for the love of the game.

Manager Halloran received a letter from Dodd some time ago and is trying to sign him up. Dodd has a reputation as a home run hitter and is a good outfielder. While in the Texas league he turned down offers of major league contracts, preferring to choose his own cities in which to play.

Halloran is silent on the name of the other player he is after to add hitting strength to the local team. The only information he would give out was that the player, should he get him, would be one of the best outfielders ever seen in Lima.

Signed contracts have been received by Halloran from a number of players who report that they are working out every day and will be in good condition when the season opens here on May 4 with Angola as the attraction.

Murphy's ball park, the home of the local club, is a busy place since the weather change. Manager Halloran has a crew of workers on the job laying an infield and also erecting additional bleachers along the third base line which will seat 200 fans. The grandstand is also being repaired.

Drake Relays Games Begin Friday

DES MOINES, Iowa — (Associated Press) — More than 2,000 athletes representing twenty-five universities and 45 colleges of the middle west and west and more than 100 high schools of Iowa and nearby states, will participate in the opening of the fifteenth annual Drake relays Friday.

Thirty track and field events are scheduled beginning at 2 p. m. with preliminaries in the 120 yard high hurdles, 100 yard dash and pole vault, broad jump and discus throw.

After the preliminaries, the high school, college and university section will compete in quarter mile, half mile, two mile and medley relay and university contestants will swim over the 400 meter low hurdles.

In the field events section high jump, shot put and javelin throw preliminaries also will be held, followed by the hop, step and jump contest. The relays continue thru Saturday, when thirty events are scheduled.

After Hornsby's Title
Rogers Hornsby is going to find the going much tougher in the National League this year. Both Eddie Roush and Frankie Frisch announce they are in the field for batting honors.

St. Johns Have Stiff Game Saturday

The local St. John's High school baseball team have turned their attention to the game with Columbus Grove High there Saturday.

This game will mark the first stiff opposition the locals will have faced this season, as it is known that Columbus Grove has one of the strongest school baseball teams in this section.

St. Johns will use practically the same lineup as last week with the exception that Farley will cover second base.

The battery of Bowers and Johnson which worked so well against Vaughnsville will be used by the saints.

From all indications the game should be a close one as the teams are evenly matched and the team that gets the strongest hurling, will win as both contingents have some heavy sluggers.

DETROIT KEEPS GOING. WINS AGAIN FROM TRIBE

NEW YORK — Rogers Hornsby's home run with two on, his fourth circuit clout of the season, Detroit's slaughter of five Cleveland pitchers and Joe Dugan's brilliant hitting and fielding for the New York Yankees were high lights in Thursday's drama of the diamond.

The Tigers kept up their winning streak in the National League, chalking up their sixth victory of the season. An opening da crowd of 22,000 saw Nehf and Ryan hold Brooklyn to six hits and beat them 7 to 4.

The Phillies hung out their second victory of the season by clubbing a pair of Boston twirlers for eleven hits and a seven to nothing victory. Elmer Jacobs, Seattle, checked the Cardinals with four hits, three of them for extra cushions and the Cubs beat them 7 to 4.

Cincinnati kept up its canter on the heels of the Giants by nailing out Pittsburgh before 28,000 fans, 5 to 4. Sammy Boone's brace of triples and effective twirling by

AN UNUSUAL GAME
CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — Two major league baseball records are believed to have been established here in Friday's Detroit-Cleveland game. Emory Rigney, Detroit shortstop, played the nine innings with only one field chance. That came in the ninth inning and then he dropped Homer Summa's infield fly.

Of the five Cleveland pitchers who worked against the Tigers none of them went to bat and of the four pinch hitters only one reached first base.

Donahue caused the downfall of the Pirates. The Yankees continued their climb toward the pinnacle of the American League, winning 6 to 3 from Boston.

Connie Mack's group of youngsters were victims of a misuse by Frank Bruggy, the Athletic catcher contributing a passed ball with Rice on third in the ninth and enabling Washington to win, 4 to 3.

The White Sox beat the Browns 5 to 4 and St. Louis speaker tossed five pitchers at Detroit and ended the game with a quartet of pinch hitters but Detroit clubbed the Indians 8 to 2.

CLEVELAND — Cleveland could do little with Storer Thursday and Detroit won 8 to 2. Cleveland used 5 pitchers. Detroit took the lead in the second when with two on, the result of passes by Edwards, Storer hit a home run.

Temporarily Married with Kenneth Harlan.

BY GERTRUDE GILLHAM
 Some beautiful and novel undersea photographs in natural colors which show an array of shimmering golds, large sharks, octopus, swordfish and an interesting view of plant life as seen in "The Uninvited Guest," which opened Thursday at the Quilna theatre.

The picture should be a great count of interest for a varied audience. It will appeal to the scientist, the photographer and the lovers of adventure. If there is part of the audience who isn't interested in this, they will find plenty in the remainder of the story to entertain them.

At the Faurot

Members of the Hawkins Ball company have proven their worth in their first production at the Faurot during the current season. "Turn to the Right" has proven to be an especially attractive opening production and because of the large cast of characters serves to introduce every member of the company to the audiences.

Final presentations of the play will be made at the performances Friday and Saturday. A matinee has been arranged for Saturday afternoon.

"A Pair of Sixes" will be the attraction beginning Sunday matinee. This is a swift moving farce comedy built around some of the situations found in the American game of poker. There is nothing in it, however, to offend anyone. Manager Frank Hawkins asserts.

The plot involves two partners who cannot agree as to which one is the brain of the firm. After many arguments a hand of poker is played to determine which one shall be in control of the business for one year. The loser must also play better for the winner during that period.

T. Boggs Johns is the loser and takes his place in the home of his partner. Comedy situations galore arise immediately and until the queen, Johns' sweetheart, beats the pair of sixes, the only case on record where this has occurred, the audience is given plenty of laughs. Monday nights will be "Bargain Nights" it is announced. Purchasers of one ticket before 6 p. m. will be given another one without extra cost.

At the Orpheum

"Day" is the title of the second production being staged at the Orpheum.

Orpheum theatre by the Marshall Walker players who are in Lima for the summer stock season. This musical comedy concerns the affairs of a millionaire of 24 and his family. The millionaire, who has been babied by an uncle and aunt, also his guardian, so that he will not realize he is of age and capable of handling his own affairs. They want him to marry their daughter and thus keep the money in the family.

The daughter loves another and "Boy," as his family always call him is enamored with a Hula Hula dancer. Trouble and misunderstanding result from the complications and it is not until the hero asserts his independence in the final scene that everything is cleared up satisfactorily to everyone.

Marshall Walker is the author of the lines and composer of the music as well as director and a principal in the production. He is supported by a capable company.

"Nancy Steps Out" will be the attraction at the New Orpheum for the first half of next week. It will open at the Sunday matinee.

At the Sigma

Presenting the sort of problems that are being faced in so many homes today, "Temporary Marriage" deals with them in a graphic and forceful way as to make a photoplay that should interest the most jaded picture-goer.

The drama is woven around the Manners' home, a typical American household, virtually the same as any average man's home. By dint of hard work Hugh Manners rises to the top, but there is some disparity between the ages of husband and wife. She is intent upon keeping young and longs for the thrills of romance. She seeks a divorce from her husband because he is a slow poke and in honor of her departure for Reno, she gives a lavish party. She becomes compromised by a play philosopher who uses her for blackmailing purposes. She is caught in the net of intrigue and before she can escape dishonor and disgrace threaten to engulf her. But

"Ed" says—U Drive it. Rent a car for that fishing trip, picnic or joy ride. Sidestep the cares of owner and mechanic. Let us do the work. Free road service day and night.

her faithful husband steps into the breach defends the youth who has sacrificed himself that her name may be protected as well as that of her daughter to whom he is engaged, and establishes the young man's innocence.

Myrtle Stedman has the role of the wife who refused to grow old. Tully Marshall is the "slow poke" husband and the roles of the young couple are ably handled by Mildred Davis and Kenneth Harlan. Stuart Holmes and Maude George fill the heavy parts in the piece.

A Monty Banks comedy precedes "Temporary Marriage" which remains at the Sigma until Sunday.

JAPAN PLANS FOR MODERN ARMY

Organization Lacking in Equipment and Air Squadrons

U. S. METHODS STUDIED

Chemical Warfare Almost Closed Book to the Forces

TOKIO (Associated Press).—The Japanese army is planning to reorganize the organization. The chief of staff, General Kaseki, minister of war, has appointed a commission with the vice-minister of war, Lieutenant General Kuraki, as chairman, to study the question of bringing the equipment of the land forces up to date. Its report will be ready by March 1, 1935. In connection with this work a party of Japanese army officers has been abroad to study modern organization in France, Great Britain and the United States.

It is pointed out that generally the equipment of the Japanese army has changed little since the Russo-Japanese war. At the same time it is realized that the question of money is the most difficult involved in the problem. Earthquake reconstruction is keeping the army appropriations to a low figure. The modernization program, in the beginning, must be paid for largely out of economies effected within the army.

AVIATION BRANCH
Japan's military leaders consider their greatest deficiency to be in aviation. The army air forces now consist of 11 flying squadrons. The high command would like to double this number, although the problem of training enough aviators is a serious one. Probably more serious than the shortage of funds at present for the Japanese have not provided themselves good aviators, and the high casualty rate among flying officers does not make the service attractive to young men seeking a military career. However, the authorities are considering an aviation expansion program to speed over approximately five years.

Chemical warfare is almost a closed book to the Japanese army. Although Japan has no intention of nullifying the Washington submarine and poisonous gas treaties, army leaders plan extensive research into the employment of and defense against the latest chemical weapons.

Japan is without tanks to all practical purposes. A few were brought back to Japan after the war for study purposes but there is no branch in the Japanese army concerned with the tank corps of the American and European forces. Motor transport also is backward in the Japanese army. The use of armored cars also will receive consideration from General Isomura's commission.

Machine guns and automatic rifles still are comparatively little employed in Japan's army, and one of the chief duties of the party now in Europe will be the study of such weapons. In field artillery there is believed to be considerable room for modernization.

In all discussion of the proposed army program Japanese officials are put on the spot again by the question of the cost of the program.

It is stated that Japan merely desires to bring her army to something like the standard held by the other great powers, who learned at first hand the bitter lessons of the great war.

The Top Coats developed by our New York Designing Rooms make men look bigger and broader. Our two-button low-waisted English models with wide trousers are something new for up-to-the-minute men. TEXAS OFFICER INDORSES IT

Policeman Says Plant Juice Quickly Ended His Awful Stomach Trouble

NOW FEELING FINE AGAIN

"Since I have taken your Plant Juice, my stomach trouble is gone and I feel better than for 20 years," declared Officer J. T. Stark, living at 548 McKinley Avenue, San Antonio, Texas, traffic policeman.

While talking recently with the Plant Juice Man at San Antonio, "Before I took Plant Juice, it seemed like all my food would form into a lump at the pit of my stomach and it caused a sore spot there and awful suffering. I bloated up with gas and had attacks of pain in my stomach. At times while on the way to work, mornings I would have one of these attacks of pain and would have to stop because of the suffering. Besides this my liver was sluggish and I had bilious headaches and pains across my back from my kidneys. I got up mornings feeling tired and worn out and as though I had not been to bed at all and I was always cross and irritable."

"I took about everything in my attempts to get relief but it seemed like nothing would help me and, finally, I heard of Plant Juice and I want to say that words cannot express my thanks for the relief Plant Juice has given me. My appetite is fine now and my stomach is in such good condition that I believe I could eat flint rock and not suffer afterward. I am always hungry, eat anything and nothing hurts me and have been relieved of the gas and bloating and the soreness at the pit of my stomach left like magic when I started on Plant Juice. The bilious headaches and pains in my back are gone. I sleep fine and so do my mornings. I feel better than for 20 years and surely cannot see why people will continue to suffer when Plant Juice is so easy to get."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima at the Hunter drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne streets, and at the Argonne drug store, 401

NEW YORK — (Associated Press)

Short covering operations were again in evidence at the opening of today's market which displayed a firm tone. National Supply moved up 1-1/4 and Bethlehem Steel gained fractionally in response to the increased earnings shown in the quarterly report published late yesterday. Oils were again in good demand, producers and refiners leading the advance with a gain of one point.

With the exception of Kelsey Wheel, which dropped one point to 50, a new 1924 bid, the general list displayed a firm tone throughout the early dealings. Good buying support appeared for all the usual leaders, Baldwin, American Can, Studer Baker and Gulf States Steel selling a point or so higher. Corn Products and United States Cast Iron Pipe each moved up more than two points. Accumulation of the oils in further reflection of the decreased crude production resulted in Pan-American B, Cosden, Pacific and Standard Oil of California selling about a point higher. Peru Marquette touched a new 1924 top at 43 3/4 on publication of a favorable March earnings report. Foreign exchanges opened irregular.

Retreat of the short interest was hastened by the plethora of money, call funds renewing at 3 3/4 per cent for the first time in weeks. While trading was not in unusually large volume, prices snapped back vigorously from their recent low levels. General Electric extending its gain to nearly four points and U. S. Steel Iron Pipe, Baldwin, Otis Elevator, National Supply and Gulf States Steel selling 2 to 3 points above yesterday's figures. American Can, United States Steel moved up 1-1/2 points to 99 1/2, the steel, oils, sugars, motors and chemicals all giving good exhibitions of group strength. Early hesitancy of the rails disappeared when a brisk demand developed for "Nickel Plate" which jumped four points on speculative expectations of an early increase in the dividend. Chesapeake and Ohio moved up nearly 2 points and Union Pacific cancelled yesterday's loss.

COMMITTEE DIGS IN TRUST CASES

Probes Charges of Daugherty's Failure to Prosecute

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Further details of the alleged failure of the department of justice to prosecute anti-trust cases, were laid before the senate investigating committee today by Huston Thompson, chairman of the federal trade commission. Thompson took the stand when the committee revised its pre-arranged plan to start today with Gaston B. Means.

Altho Sidney Morris and Co., a Chicago stationers firm was being forced "out of business" for refusing to abide by an alleged price fixing agreement of the National Catalogue Commission, Thompson said that the department of justice refused to take action in the case.

Thompson said an investigation by the committee was made in 1918-1919 into the stationer trade to determine if the anti-trust law had been violated.

Evidence in the case was turned over to the department of justice in 1920, but it was turned back to the commission by the department three years later, with the statement that "there was no case," he said.

WIFE SEEKS INJUNCTION TO STOP PROPERTY SALE

An injunction restraining Elmer Stober, 227 N. Main, from disposing of property owned in common was filed Friday in common pleas court by Mrs. Etta Stober.

She recites that the defendant struck her, choked and kicked her. Their domestic difficulties became so strenuous on one occasion that police interfered and transferred hostilities to the municipal court.

The wife says she was married in 1904. Stober is said to be employed at the Lima Locks and works at the Lima Locks.

Stober was not to be allowed to resume her former name, Etta Stober.
